LOVE FEAST HELD BY CAR OFFICIALS AND CIVIC LEADERS

All Differences Between Atlanta and Power Company Over Rails and Street Paving Settled at Meeting on Friday.

COMPANY GUARANTEES GRANT ST. PAVEMENT

Ponce de Leon Work Will Start at Once, and on Gordon Concrete Base Will Be Used Where Construction Chief Requests.

If any citizen of Atlanta has ever imagined that there was a fight going on between the city government and the Georgia Railway and Power company about street paving and rails he would have come to the conclusion that he has been dwelling with the lotus eaters if he had attended the meeting of the street committee of council yesterday afternoon.

President Preston S. Arkwright and Vice President William H. Glenn, of the Georgia Railway and Power company, were present, and Mr. Arkwright made a talk.

Fight! Why it was almost a love feast.

Ponce de Leon avenue is to be repaved right away.

Gordon street is to be repaved immediately.

And Grant street—hold your breath—even Grant street is to be repaved at once.

How It Was Settled.

On Ponce de Leon the street car company is to keep down its "T" rail.

On Gordon street the company will lay a concrete base under the pavement wherever the chief of construction thinks it may be necessary.

On Grant street the company will lay a base of crushed stone, but will give a written guarantee that the car tracks will not injure the pavement.

To all of this the street committee agreed, and the—no, not fight—"agitation" is over.

The meeting of the street committee was one of the liveliest and most spirited, but at the same time the most friendly, it has ever held with the officials of the Georgia Railway and Power company. The officials were present by special invitation.

From what they had heard for the past two or three months, the audience of taxpayers thought they were going to witness something real scrappy.

But the dove descended, the olive branch was waved triumphantly and everything went on as merry as a wedding bell.

The "T" Rail and the Groove Rail.

Mr. Arkwright began to speak of the "request" by the city to lay a groove rail instead of a "T" rail on Ponce de Leon avenue. He said:

"We have now down on Ponce de Leon avenue a 'T' rail of 80 pounds to the inch, with a double track. It has been down only five years, and will last fifteen or twenty years. Must we tear up that good track and throw away the rails, for we cannot use a 'T' rail on any other street, and lay a groove rail at a cost of over $15,000? Would that be fair or just? Then, if we agreed to lay a groove rail, it would have to be specially ordered, and it would take us three or four months to get it.

"Furthermore, it is the experience all over the country that the 'T' rail is as good if not better than a groove rail to be laid against a smooth pavement."

Councilman Ashley asked Mr. Arkwright about the brick pavement laid between the car tracks on North Boulevard. He said that where there was a groove rail the pavement was good, but where there was a "T" rail the pavement had a deep rut cut next to the tracks fully 3½ inches wide. He said that a poor car flange had been the cause of it.

Depends Upon the Pavement.

Mr. Arkwright replied that he knew nothing of this.

"I do know," he said, "that a brick pavement, if properly laid, will last just as long, if not longer, when if laid next to a groove rail."

Councilman Knight said that the street car company had torn up a portion of Butler street to lay a track and that the pavement was in an "awful condition." He wanted to know if the street car company would hereafter guarantee the pavement.

Mr. Arkwright replied that no such guarantee should be asked.

"Do you know why the company is assessed for street paving?" he asked. "It is because in the old days of horse cars the horses wore out the paving, but now no such condition exists and

WITCHES TO HAUNT ATLANTA'S STREETS TO HELP CHILDREN

Will you give some sum toward the $800 necessary to pay for the furnace at the Atlanta Child's Home? This question will be asked hundreds of Atlantans today by many young girls who have banded together to assist this charitable institution.

Although these young ladies will be dressed as witches their time abroad will be between 6 o'clock in the morning and 6 in the evening. They express great confidence in raising this amount, for they will haunt, they say, the lawyer in his office, the clerk in the store, as well as the pedestrian in the streets.

The Atlanta Child's Home has been doing a great work in the city. Not only are many children taken care of during each year, but the mothers are never separated from them.

5 GEORGIANS GIVEN CARNEGIE MEDALS

Four Get Bronze Medals. Fifth Hero Lost Life, and Silver Medal and Pension Go to Widow and Children

Pittsburg, Pa., October 29.—Five Georgians figure in the list of awards announced here tonight by the Carnegie Hero Fund commission.

Four of these Georgians receive bronze medals. In the fifth case the hero lost his life but the commission awards a silver medal to widow with pension for self and children.

Awards to Georgians.

Those who were awarded bronze medals are:

James W. Brice, Sr., Culloden, Ga.; aged 48; for attempting to save James Jones from suffocation in a well at Culloden, October 20, 1914.

Abner Sullivan, Culloden, Ga.; aged 37; for saving James Jones in case cited.

Leopold C. Coleman, 418 East Huntington street, Savannah, Ga.; aged 26; for saving Rose Goshen from drowning in a motor-boat accident at Montgomery, Ga., March 19, 1911.

Samuel F. Hargett, West Point, Ga.; aged 22; for saving J. Holstun Darden in a well June 25, 1913.

Because of the bravery of Eli J. Harden, deceased, a silver medal was awarded to his widow, Dalton, Ga., together with pension for self and children. Harden died attempting to save James H. Seay from suffocation in a well, August 13, 1913.

Sixty Awards in All.

Sixty acts of heroism in all were recognized by the commission in the awards that were announced. In eight cases silver medals were awarded; and in fifty-two cases, bronze medals.

Nine of the heroes lost their lives, and to the dependents of six of these, pensions aggregating $2,520 a year were granted; to the dependents of one of these and of three others who lost their lives, sums totaling $2,165, to be applied, subject to the direction of the commission, in various ways, were granted. In addition to these money grants, in six cases sums aggregating $11,000 were appropriated for educational purposes, payments to be made as needed and approved; and in forty cases awards aggregating $28,500 were made to be applied toward the purchase of homes and to other worthy purposes. Payments in these cases will not be made until the beneficiary's plans for the use of the award have been approved by the commission.

This Waiter Prefers Poetry and Melody To Harvest of Tips

When Inspiration Comes, Jack Worth Scribbles Lines for Popular Songs on Paper Napkins of Restaurant.

DISCOVERED—A waiter who prefers poetry and melody to tips. Apply to Jack J. Worth between hours of 8 p. m. and 2 a. m.

The fact that waiters have often been known to reach such a state of opulence as to command motor cars and other expensive luxuries is due more to avarice, perhaps, than talent.

But there is in Atlanta a different kind of waiter. He writes popular songs, words, music and all, and is now engaged in publishing his latest.

Jack Worth's latest is "Make Me Believe in Dreams, Sweetheart, Then I'll Believe in You." The first verse runs in catchy waltz time, to this effect:

"At night I live in Dreamland, dearie,
All alone with you.
And in my dreams you love me
Just the same as I love you.
But dreams are only pictures
Of a lover's weary brain,
And as dreams fade away
At the dawn of the day,
You'll hear me sing this refrain:

CHORUS.

"Make me believe in dreams, sweetheart,
Then I'll believe in you.
Then I will know you love me, dear,
And I'll always be true.
But dreams, you know,
Evasive are and don't always come true,
But make me believe in dreams, sweetheart,
And I'll believe in you."

Sometimes when inspiration comes the waiter-songster scribbles his lines on a paper napkin. He has written three successful songs that were published by the firm of his brother, Worth Publishing company, in Australia.

Worth is an Atlanta boy. He has been a waiter most of his life, working in the Childs places in New York, Philadelphia and Atlantic City.

He prefers the "still watches of the night" to duty hours that would net a harvest of tips. Instead of choosing the rush hours during meal time, he works between the hours of 8 at night and 2 in the morning, the dullest of the day in the big Childs restaurant.

EIGHT ARE INJURED WHEN STREET CARS CRASH AT CROSSING

Outgoing Capitol Avenue and East Fair to White City Cars Collide at Capitol Avenue and East Fair.

SCORES OF PASSENGERS ENDANGERED BY SMASH

Accident Was the Result of Slippery Tracks, According to Statement of Trolley Company Employees to the Police.

Eight were hurt and scores of passengers narrowly escaped death late Friday afternoon when a Capitol avenue street car, plunging down a steep grade at the approach of the East Fair street intersection, crashed into an East Fair-White City street car at the crossing, completely derailing the latter car and whirling it around in the street.

Both the cars were outgoing, and carried heavy loads.

The street car men informed Police Officers B. B. Haslett and Sam Webb that the cause of the accident was due to slippery car tracks. The East Fair street car was also running down a slight grade on that street.

Broken glass was scattered in all directions, and it is a miracle that more passengers were not hurt in the accident.

List of Injured.

The injured are as follows:

Motorman H. W. Deavers, 160 Courtland street, sustained cuts about face and head, and back badly sprained.

Miss Addeline Rowe, 88 Cameron street, head and back bruised, and hands cut by glass.

Mrs. S. E. Hudson, 93 Ormwood avenue, back and shoulder wrenched.

Miss Addie Cornelison, 710 Woodward avenue, hip, back and leg badly bruised.

W. B. Willingham, 236 Cameron street, badly shaken up.

S. B. Haynes, 80 Rosalia street, scratched on face when eyeglasses were broken.

A. R. Whitman, 17 Hansel street, hip bruised.

Police Officers Investigate.

Motorman Deavers was running the Capitol avenue car, which was No. 115. The East Fair-White City car was No. 245. The accident occurred about 5:50 o'clock.

Police Officers Haslett and Webb reached the scene only a few minutes after the accident, and hastily made an investigation. No one was sent to a hospital, as none of the injuries appeared to be dangerous.

The wrecking car of the Georgia Railway and Power company was rushed to the scene, and quickly put the derailed car back on the tracks and reopened the blocked lines to the early night traffic, which is quite heavy on these routes.

Officers Haslett and Webb later went to Deavers' residence and served him with a copy of charges to appear on next Saturday afternoon in police court to answer to the charges of reckless running of his street car.

For Fourth Time Young Girl Tries To End Her Life

Halts Surgeons on Way to the Ambulance Until Her Sister Has Time to Remove Engagement Ring From Her Finger.

Even though near death, from a dose of carbolic acid, desire for the safety of her engagement ring seemed to be the dominant thought of a young woman hurried from her home to the Grady hospital for treatment last night. As the surgeons were taking her from the house, she forced them to stop for a few moments until her sister could remove the ring and put it away where it would be well cared for.

She also remembered to give the wrong name in order to puzzle the newspaper men, who, she said, she knew would learn of her attempt to suicide. She gave the name of Miss Ellen Smith, of 94 Spring street.

She took carbolic acid last night shortly after eating her supper, and was found by her sister, Mrs. M. C. Read, of 94 Spring street, lying in a semi-conscious condition across her bed.

She did not lose entire consciousness at any moment, although at Grady hospital, while on the operating table, according to the surgeons, she occasionally screamed aloud:

"Oh, Harry! Harry!"

But who Harry is, she would not tell, not any more than he was just Harry. She stated, though, that this was her fourth attempt to kill herself.

Neither could any further information be gathered at the residence.

Miss Smith is now believed to be beyond danger, although she will be a patient at the hospital for several days.

Two States Figure In This Legal Row Over Ford Machine

Gov. Harris, Gov. Rye and Courts of Georgia and Tennessee Have Hand in Auto Ownership Dispute.

Here is an honest-to-goodness new Ford story:

George B. Powell, of Atlanta, had a Ford.

Last March it disappeared, and later he located a Ford in Nashville, Tenn., which, in court there, was identified as his, although J. L. Fossick, of that city, claimed that it belonged to him. The outcome of replevin proceedings in Nashville was that the judge decided that the little old Ford belonged to Powell, and Powell got into it and rambled right along back to Atlanta.

A week ago F. R. Carr, a detective from Nashville, and Fossick hove to in Atlanta with the avowed purpose of locating Powell and the Ford and instituting proceedings to recover the car, which they did, bringing the proceedings by way of a possessory warrant in municipal court.

Judge McClelland, of municipal court, however, so the story goes, decided that since Fossick had appealed the Nashville decision to the high court of Tennessee, he could not have jurisdiction until the Nashville case had taken its full course in the high court, and the little Ford remained in the possession of Powell.

Anticipating such a possible eventuality, Detective Carr had armed himself with a requisition from Governor Rye, of Tennessee, asking the extradition of Powell on a charge of perjury, charging that he had perjured himself in the Nashville trial, and forthwith presented the requisition at the office of Governor Harris Friday afternoon.

The governor's office, it is stated, went so far as to issue the extradition warrant, which doubtless would have been served except for the fact that before the Georgia officer delivered the warrant to the Tennesse officer Powell had a warrant sworn out for both Detective Carr and Fossick, charging perjury on their part, inasmuch as Powell claims that he did not go on the stand in Nashville, while the Tennessee men, he says, testified in Atlanta that he testified so-and-so in Nashville.

Accordingly Detective Carr was placed under arrest at the Fulton sheriff's office before he received the extradition warrant from the Georgia officer for the arrest of Powell, and later made bond. He was at the Kimball house last night, as was also Fossick.

They have been cited to appear in court this morning to answer a charge of perjury.

Meanwhile the Georgia officer in possession of the extradition papers has turned them back to Governor Harris and asked that he hold them until a hearing can be had in his office this morning at 10 o'clock, when Powell will fight the extradition.

And, so far, that's all of the new Ford story.

DEMOCRATS TO NAME PLACE FOR HOLDING NEXT CONVENTION

New York, October 29.—William F. McCombs, chairman of the democratic national committee, announced tonight that a meeting of the committee had been called for December 7 to decide where the next national convention shall be held. The committee will meet at the New Willard hotel in Washington.

Chicago, St. Louis and Dallas have applied for the convention. The two first named have offered to meet all of the expenses of the national committee. Dallas has offered the use of an auditorium and a bonus of $100,000.

In some quarters there is sentiment in favor of putting New York in the contest, but no formal application has been filed by representatives of this city.

The date for the meeting of the committee was set after McCombs had conversed with President Wilson by telephone.

In addition to naming a convention city the committee will decide all contests regarding membership of the committee and devise ways and means for raising money for the conduct of the campaign before and after the convention. At present there are only two contests in sight, one from Kentucky and one from Oregon.

The chairman of the republican national committee also issued a call for committee to meet in Washington December 14 to decide where the next republican convention shall be held.

EASTMAN PEOPLE SEND SOLID TRAIN OF COTTON HERE

Eastman, Ga., October 29.—(Special.) A rather novel sight for the people living along the line of the Wrightsville and Tennille railroad is a shipment through the Merchants and Farmers' bank and Citizens' Banking company, of this city, to the Central Bank and Trust corporation, of Atlanta, of a solid train load, comprising twenty or more cars, and containing a round thousand bales of cotton. This went forward today in a special train which carried only this cotton aboard. The people of Dodge county are evidently taking advantage of the opportunity of holding their cotton in the manner prescribed by this well-known banking company. Last year when cotton was at its lowest hundreds and hundreds of bales were sent to this institution and held for higher prices, which later came.

This special is but the forerunner of other shipments which will follow in the same direction.

Dodge county last year raised in the neighborhood of 40,000 bales of cotton and this year the crop, though curtailed, will amount to many thousands. The people are giving attention to diversified crops and the grain crops of this year are the largest in the county's history and the meat output will be proportionately large.

Switchmen's Demands Rejected

Chicago, October 29.—The eighteen railroads involved in a demand made a month ago by four thousand Chicago switchmen for an increase of 5 cents an hour have rejected the demand, it was learned today and committees representing the two sides will attempt to compromise the problem in conference. The switchmen say they will strike if an agreement cannot be reached.

AMERICAN LIVES PLACED IN PERIL BY VILLA PROTEST

Declared Americans Can't Be Protected in Sonora Unless Carranza Troops Are Barred From United States Territory.

FORCES OF GEN. VILLA NEAR ARIZONA BORDER

Big Battle Imminent at Agua Prieta, Where Carranza Troops Are Massed. U. S. Troops Ready to Stop Firing Across Border.

Douglas, Ariz., October 29.—At least fifty, and possibly 100, American citizens residing in portions of the state of Sonora are believed here to have been placed in grave danger today by the posting at Cananea of printed copies of a protest that Carlos Randall, acting Villa governor, sent to the state department at Washington.

This protest declared that unless permission given General Carranza to transport troops over American territory to Agua Prieta was not evoked immediately "there would be no safety for American citizens in Sonora, much less for their property."

At Cananea alone American mining interests have property valued at millions of dollars.

The document posted there was signed by J. M. Acosta, a Yaqui chief, in the form of a notice to the Cananea prefect that the governor had sent a protest to Washington. A copy placed in the hands of American authorities here tonight read, in part:

"Urge him (President Wilson) to revoke immediately permission granted Carranza to send troops over American territory into Agua Prieta, because otherwise we will have to lament any fatal consequences on account of the great danger in which all Americans in Sonora will be placed, for it is impossible for me to repress the fury of the people and the army against the American government for apparent partiality shown in helping one contending Mexican faction, contrary to all rights. I trust the American government realizes the gravity of the situation and will revoke the many times repeated permission."

Seven Americans already are in the hands of Villa troops, according to information available tonight. James Carr, Sr., James Carr, Jr., Lawrence Carr and William Doran are held at Esqueda, and three linemen employed on the El Tigre power line, Archie McDonald and two others named Nelson and Greene, are prisoners at Frenteras, according to reports.

BATTLE IMMINENT AT AGUA PRIETA.

Douglas, Ariz., October 29.—The troops of General Francisco Villa were reported tonight to be finally in motion toward the international border for their impending attack on Agua Prieta, Sonora, opposite here, where Carranza soldiers, commanded by General P. Elias Calles, are strongly entrenched.

Indications tonight were that a battle would be in progress between the two factions by Sunday.

Five thousand American troops, with sixteen three-inch guns, are mobilized here to see that the Mexicans shoot only on their own side of the boundary. Carranza troops lie behind an elaborate system of earthworks awaiting the approach of the Villa army.

Word was received today that five thousand Carranza troops were coming by rail through United States territory to strengthen the Agua Prieta garrison. Twenty-five hundred men with their arms in bond in a sealed car will arrive here from Piedras Negras tomorrow, it was stated by Rodolfo Graduna, Mexican consul here. A similar force will follow Sunday or Monday.

Sixteen 75-millimeter or 3-inch guns and twenty-two machine guns arrived today in bond for General Calles, Consul Graduna said.

Brigadier General Thomas F. Davis of the Sixth infantry brigade assumed command today of the United States troops here. It was said Major General Frederick Funston might come here soon to take command.

Although undoubtedly outnumbered and probably outmatched in artillery, General P. Elias Calles, in command of Agua Prieta, regards his position as impregnable. The town lies on an eminence, the easiest point of attack being to the eastward. Here Carranza engineers have devoted most attention to fortifications.

Villa is reliably reported to have twenty-eight field guns, some as large as four-inch pieces, though these are believed to be hardly more than 50 per cent efficient. His army is estimated at from 6,000 to 12,000 men.

BANDITS ATTACK AMERICAN TROOPS.

Brownsville, Texas, October 2.—Mexican bandits attacked a patrol of twenty United States soldiers early today near Capote, under the impression that the troops were in tents. Instead, the infantry were stationed in trenches a short distance from the camp and opened fire on the Mexicans at short range before the latter realized their predicament. They then made off in the direction of the Rio Grande river, three miles distant.

Three horses ridden by the Mexicans were killed, and owing to the blood from these animals it was impossible to ascertain whether any of the Mexicans were wounded by the fire of the troops. No American soldiers were hit.

The infantry were parts of companies E and H, Twenty-eighth regiment, recently arrived from Dallas, and were in command of Lieutenant M. R. Wainer. Troops of the Third and Twelfth

BULGARS ARE ROUTED IN SOUTHERN SERBIA BY THE FRENCH FORCES

STORM OF SHELLS FROM GERMAN GUNS BRINGS NO RESULT

For a Week Von Hindenburg Has Been Vainly Hammering Russians in Riga-Dvinsk Region.

RUSSIANS REMAIN FIRM AND GIVE SHOT FOR SHOT

In South Russians Are Harrying Austro-Germans and Important Events Are Expected—In France Artillery Is Active.

London, October 29.—Fighting continues in the east and west and on the Austro-Italian front, but little change in the situation is reported.

In the east a battle is still raging for Riga and Dvinsk, which for nearly two months Field Marshal von Hindenburg has been endeavoring to reach. During the past week the Germans have poured a rain of shells on the Russian positions along a front of 150 miles, from the mouth of the Dvina to the south of Dvinsk, but, although the Russians are falling back a little in the north, they have generally held firm and returned shot for shot, which is taken here to indicate that their supply of ammunition is now satisfactory.

Through the lake district between Dvinsk and Sventsyany the Russians are steadily advancing and are approaching the Vilna-Dvinsk railway. In the south they also continue harrying the Austro-Germans by frequent thrusts. Emperor Nicholas and his son are visiting General Ivanoff in this region.

IMPORTANT EVENTS ARE EXPECTED.

As the Germans are reported to have sent a part of General von Linsingen's army from this region to the Rumanian frontier to guard against a Rumanian attack on Field Marshal von Mackensen's forces in Serbia, important events are looked for along the Styr and in Galicia.

In the west artillery engagements remain the chief method of warfare, although there has been some trench fighting.

Several trenches have been taken from the Germans in the contest for the La Courtine salient positions in Champagne, still occupied by the Teutons, where continuous fighting is going on with the French forces. In addition the Germans are declared by Paris to have lost nearly 400 men in killed or wounded and 2,000 taken prisoner. Artillery duels have predominated on the rest of the line in France and Belgium.

The Italians continue their violent attacks against the Gorizia bridgehead. The Austrians claim to have repulsed the Italians on the whole front here.

GERMAN CORPSES CHOKED RIVER.

London, October 29.—"Accounts have reached here," says a Reuter dispatch from Petrograd, "of a spectacular fight on the island of Dalen, on the Dvina river, a few miles southeast of Riga, whither the Russians lured the Germans, allowing them time to install themselves before beginning a bombardment from both sides.

"Spectators from Riga who witnessed the cannonade from a bridge across the Dvina saw the river choked with German corpses floating down stream, and stated that the German forces had been almost entirely wiped out."

GERMANS SHORT OF AMMUNITION.

London, October 29.—The failure of the Germans to take Dvinsk and Riga is attributed in Petrograd, according to a Reuter dispatch, not only to the difficult nature of the heavily wooded country, which prohibits mass movements of troops, but to "a German shortage of ammunition, said to be becoming critical."

FRENCH GAIN IN CHAMPAGNE.

Paris, October 29.—Tonight's war office statement said:

"In the course of the continuous combats that are going on in Champagne for the possesion of those portions of 'La Courtine' work, which are still occupied by the Germans, we realized today very perceptible progress by taking from the enemy, on a front of about 150 meters, several trenches which the Germans demended up to the last moment with the greatest tenacity. We have taken 200 unwounded prisoners, including a company commander and two other officers, the Germans having besides lost nearly 400 men killed or wounded.

"On the Lorraine front a German bombardment, especially violent, is reported between the forts of Parroy and La Vezeuse river. Our artillery replied by shelling effectively the batteries and works of the enemy. Our artillery hit a military train in the station of Burthecourt."

Tonight's Belgian official statement follows:

"Some short bombardments occurred

Victory Came After Three Days' Battle, and the French Advanced Twenty Miles Into Bulgaria and Occupied Strumitsa.

INVADERS ENDEAVORING TO TRAP MAIN SERB ARMY ON THE NORTHERN FRONT

Serbs Are Offering Spirited Resistance as They Retire, and It Is Believed They Will Avoid the Trap—Rumored Rumania Is About to Cast Her Lot With the Allies.

London, October 29.—An Exchange Telegraph dispatch from Athens says:

"It is learned from a good source that the French, after a three days' fight, have occupied Strumitsa and advanced about 20 miles into Bulgarian territory. The Bulgarians lost heavily."

London, October 29.—The Germans, with their Austrian and Bulgarian allies, are still trying to cut off the retreat of the main Serbian army, which is offering spirited resistance as it retires. While Field Marshal von Mackensen's force advances slowly from the north, the Austrians have crossed the western border of Serbia, south of Vishegrad, and are moving eastward, and the Bulgarians are marching westward on a wide front from Pirot, southeast of Nish, to Zajecar, northeast of Nish.

SERB ARSENAL THREATENED.

It is a long way across and the country is difficult to traverse, but the Serbians are bound to defend it as long as possible, as their great arsenal at Kraguyevatz is situated in this area, and they doubtless will hold on with the hope of making an eventual retirement in the mountains along the Montenegrin frontier and in that country.

To forestall this the Austrians also are attacking in Montenegro, but have made little progress, as the Montenegrins, under their veteran fighting king, have had a long time to prepare for just such an event, and have beaten off all attacks. In fact, the Montenegrins hold some strong positions in Austrian territory, out of which they will have to be driven before their own country is invaded.

There is no change in the southern area of Serbia, so far as known. A report that Uskup has been recaptured is not confirmed. The French, however, claim to have cleared the Bulgarians out of the Veles district. This, if true, would render Uskup an unsafe place for the invaders, in the opinion of military men.

RUMANIA TO JOIN ENTENE ALLIES?

In what other way Serbia is to be assisted has not yet been disclosed. Some British troops are co-operating with the French in the south and others are on the way, but where they will be used remains a secret. Russia's plans also have not been disclosed, although from German sources it is reported that Rumania is about to throw in her lot with the entente allies and will allow the passage of a half million of Russian troops through her territory to attack Bulgaria from the north.

Greece has assured the entente powers that her neutrality remains friendly to them and has pointed out that

TEUTONS DEFEATED BY MONTENEGRINS.

Rome, October 29.—A dispatch to The Tribuna from Scutari, Albania, says:

"Near Visegrad (Bosnia) the Montenegrins have stormed the enemy's position near Sustigora, which commands the whole region, and established themselves firmly. They inflicted heavy losses on the enemy and took many prisoners."

VELES RECAPTURED BY THE BULGARIANS.

London, October 30.—The Bulgarians have recaptured Veles (Koprulu), Serbia, according to the Athens correspondent of The Times. Veles is 23 miles southeast of Uskup and is on the railroad line between Uskup and Saloniki.

BULGAR TOWNS RAZED BY ALLIED FLEET.

Sofia, October 27.—(Via London, October 30.—Delayed.)—The damage done by the bombardment of Aegean sea towns and villages by the allied fleet recently was greater than at first reported. One-fourth of the entire city of Dedeaghatch was razed.

Sofia, October 28.—(Via London, October 30.—Delayed.)—Although the bombardment of Varna by the Russian fleet lasted only ten minutes the bodies of 22 civilians already have been found, while more than 100 persons were injured, many of them severely, according to reports received here.

The Russian fleet was sighted at 8 o'clock in the morning rapidly approaching the city and opened fire while still at a great distance. It approached to within a little over three miles but withdrew before the Bulgarian batteries could make their fire effective.

According to official reports the Russians never searched out the Bulgarian batteries but merely shelled the city, especially the harbor sections, where Greeks form the majority of the population. The people are greatly excited over the bombardments of Bulgarian cities on the Aegean and Black seas.

Rome, October 29.—A dispatch to The Giornale D'Italia from Kustendje, a Rumanian port on the Black sea, describes yesterday's Russian fleet attack on the Black sea coast of Bulgaria. Russian battleships and torpedo boats bombarded Varna and Burgas and the neighboring coast. The torpedo boats, the dispatch said, warded off attacks of Austro-Bulgarian submarines.

Damage done by the bombardment is described as serious. The Bulgarian artillery made a feeble reply. The report says that some Bulgarian detachments in the coast forts gave cheers for Russia during the bombardment.

GAINS REPORTED FOR THE INVADERS.

Berlin, October 29.—(Via London.)—Serbian forces opposing the Austrian advance on the western border of Serbia have been thrown across the frontier east of Visagrad (Bosnia), it was officially announced today by German army headquarters. Advances for the Austro-German armies and for the Bulgarian forces in other sectors of the Serbian front also are recorded.

The text of the statement regarding the Serbian operation is as follows:

"Near Drinsko, south of Visegrad, the enemy has been driven back. East of that place he has been thrown across the frontier.

"West of the Morava the general line of Smarko-Vica-Rudnik-Cumic-Batocina has been reached.

"Southeast of Svilajnac enemy positions on both sides of the Resava were stormed. More than 1,300 prisoners fell into our hands.

"On the front of General Boyedjieff's army the enemy is weakening. This army is in pursuit."

Vienna, October 29.—(Via London.)—The Austrian war office tonight issued the following:

"Southeastern theater: Montenegrin battalions operating southeast of Vishegrad were beaten near Prinska and on the Suhagora the German divisions of General von Koevess' army advanced to the region of Rudnik. The Austro-Hungarian forces of this army, while attacking, crossed the lowland on the upper Raca, which is nearly impracticable, owing to rains. In bitter fighting they threw the enemy from Cumisko height and stormed the village of Cumic. The army of General von Gallwitz, in the region of Lapovo, crossed the Lepenica and made further progress.

"The Bulgarian first army captured Pirot. The enemy began a retreat along the whole front."

BULGAR TROOPS ON THE DEFENSIVE.

Paris, October 29.—The correspondent of the Havas News agency at Athens telegraphs under Thursday's date that the aspect of operations on the Serbian front is changing since the French successes at Veles and Strumitsa. The Bulgarians, he says, are on the defensive northward along the Nish railroad.

A big battle is expected in the neighborhood of Istip, toward which the Franco-Serbian army is marching. The Bulgarians are entrenching themselves on the heights around the town.

According to dispatches received by Athens newspapers, the Bulgarians operating in the valley of the lower Timok, between Grahovo and Strumitsa, have been cut off and annihilated.

BULGAR WOMEN IN REBELLION.

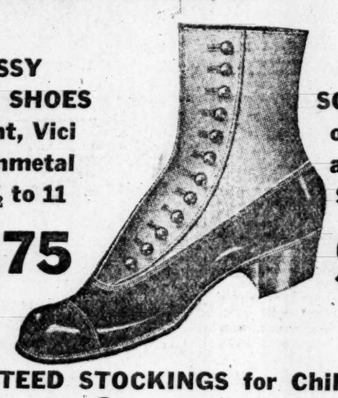

Paris, October 29.—Unrest is reported in Bulgaria, according to the Havas correspondent at Athens. He reports that at Borgas and Stara Zagora there was a demonstration by Bulgarian women against the war, the women crying, "Give us back our men. We want bread." Police who interfered were received with showers of stones and troops had to be summoned before order was restored.

GREECE WON'T JOIN TEUTONIC POWERS

Sir Edward Grey Says Such Course Would Be Impossible for Greece — Official Statement by Greece.

London, October 29.—Rumor continues to ascribe to the Greek government intentions hostile to the entente powers, even going so far as to say Greece has an understanding with Bulgaria and at the psychological moment will fall upon the allied troops which landed at Saloniki. No such designs are really credited to Greece in London, but England and France continue to watch the political situation at Athens with unconcealed anxiety.

Sir Edward Grey, the foreign secretary, said today that Greece's espousal of the cause of the central powers was an impossibility, and similar assurances come from authoritative Greek sources.

The Greek legation in London in a statement today disposes of reports from various sources regarding the position of Greece.

"Lately," says the statement, "there have appeared in the press various items of news derived from German, Austrian and Bulgarian journals and news agencies, and bearing upon the attitude and intentions of Greece, such as a mythical mission of M. Sophoulis (former governor of Macedonia) to King Ferdinand; a refusal of King Constantine to receive ministers of the entente powers; an intention by Greece to menace the troops at Saloniki, et cetera.

"The Greek minister has received telegraphic instructions from Premier Zaimis to contradict in the most categorical manner these rumors, which in spite of repeated denials were propagated even in Athens, and the malevolent object of which is only too evident in the endeavor to prejudice public opinion and sow suspicion and hostility between the entente powers and Greece."

RUMANIA TO ACCEPT PROPOSALS OF ALLIES.

Athens, October 29.—(Via London.)—The Hestia says it has learned from a diplomatic source that there are indications Rumania will accept the proposals of the allies for joining with them. It is highly probable, the newspaper says, that Russian forces concentrated on the Rumanian frontier will pass through Rumania to go to the assistance of Serbia.

The entente powers, it is said, intend to satisfy Rumania's ambitions, including her desire for territory in Russian Bessarabia.

Paris, October 29.—A dispatch to the Havas News Agency from Bucharest, filed last Sunday and delayed in transmission, says a violent public demonstration against the policy of the government took place there on that day. One faction of the manifestants sought to reach the palace, but was prevented by a large force of troops. Two of the leaders asked for an audience with King Ferdinand. A number of minor street disturbances occurred.

Dispatches from Amsterdam and Berlin on Tuesday referred briefly to this demonstration, which was to have been organized in favor of the entente allies.

THOUSANDS OF SYRIANS ARE FACING STARVATION

London, October 29.—The foreign office has received a dispatch from British Consul Shipley at Tabriz, Persia, which says that 25,000 Syrian mountaineers from the Tyari and adjacent districts have taken refuge in Salmas, and that 10,000 more are expected there. All are destitute, and unless help is received many will perish, as winter is near.

Consul Shipley adds that the American relief committee under the presidency of the United States consul is doing all it can, but that its funds are inadequate and that Great Britain must aid. Mr. Shipley suggests that all funds be sent to him for distribution through the American committee, which he believes is the best agency for giving effective relief.

BRIAND IS PREMIER IN FRENCH CABINET

Coalition Ministry Formed to Succeed Viviani Cabinet. Personnel of New Cabinet Remarkable.

Paris, October 29.—A new French cabinet, headed by Aristide Briand as premier and minister of foreign affairs, came into existence tonight.

This is the first time in the history of the French republic that there is a coalition ministry of all the opposing parties and factions. It follows closely on the recent innovation of forming a British coalition cabinet of conservatives and liberals.

Composition of Cabinet.

The composition of the cabinet follows:

Premier and Minister of Foreign Affairs—Aristide Briand.

General Secretary of the Minister of of Foreign Affairs—Jules Cambon.

Minister of War—General J. S. Gallieni.

Minister of Justice—Rene Viviani.

Minister of the Interior—Louis J. Malvy.

Minister of Marine—Rear Admiral Lacaze.

Minister of Finance—Alexandre Ribot.

Minister of Public Instruction and Inventions Concerning National Defense—Professor Paul Painleve.

Minister of Public Works—Marcel Sembat.

Minister of Commerce—Eteienne Clementel.

Minister of Colonies—Gaston Doumergue.

Minister of Agriculture—Jules Meline.

Minister of Labor—Albert Metin.

Ministers Without Portfolio—Emil Combes, Leon Bourgeois, Denys Cochin and Jules Guesde.

Under-Secretary of State, War and Munitions—Albert Thomas.

Under-Secretary of State for Subsistence—Joseph Thierry.

Under-Secretary of State for Sanitary Service—Justin Godart.

Under-Secretary of State for Aviation—Rene Besnard.

Under-Secretary of State for Marine—Louis Nail.

Under-Secretary of Fine Arts—Albert Dalimier.

The under-secretaries of the ministries of the interior and foreign affairs were not made public.

The action taken today in forming the cabinet was the culmination of a deep popular sentiment that at the supreme crisis of the war party division should give way to united action by all the parties in common support of the government.

Remarkable in Personnel.

As the result of the cabinet of Rene Viviani being representative of only a few political groups, the ministers presented their collective resignations and President Poincare immediately charged Aristide Briand with the formation of a new organization, combining all elements.

The resulting coalition is remarkable in personnel, including such venerable figures as Charles De Freycinet, who was one of Gambetta's aides in the upheaval of 1870; Jules Meline, a former premier, who instituted the protective system of France, and Leon Bourgeois, who is known as the "Grand Old Man of the Radical Party," which has the largest membership in parliament.

The modern element is represented by conspicuous leaders of all the political groups of the country. Thus the new coalition brings together France's elder and younger statesmen, and in personnel represents all the history of modern France since the fall of Napoleon III. The new cabinet also is notable in having the popular military leader, General Gallieni, as the head of the war office, and Rear Admiral Lacaze as head of the ministry of marine, both of them replacing civilians.

Extent of the Coalition.

The extent of the coalition is shown by the following representations from the various parties:

The radical party is represented by M. Bourgeois, a former premier; M. Combes, a former premier, and Rene Renoult, one of the foremost parliamentary leaders of the party.

The republican socialists have as members M. Briand, M. Viviani and Professor Painleve.

The socialist group is represented by Jules Guesde, who has been the socialist head since the death of Jean Leon Juares, and by Marcel Sembat and Albert Thomas, prominent socialist leaders.

The democratic left has as members Garbriel Guisthan and Joseph Thierry, while the radical left has Etienne Clementel as its representative.

The royalist and clerical element is represented by Denys Cochin.

BRITISH CASUALTIES GIVEN AS 493,294 MEN

London, October 29.—British casualties from the beginning of the war to October 9 were 493,294.

The losses were distributed as follows:

Western area:

Killed, officers, 4,401; other ranks, 63,059.

Wounded, officers, 9,169; other ranks, 225,716.

Missing, oficers, 1,567; other ranks, 61,134.

Total casualties, in all operations:

Killed, officers, 6,660.

Other ranks, 94,992.

Wounded, officers, 12,633.

Other ranks, 304,832.

Missing, officers, 2,000.

Other ranks, 72,177.

Total officers, 21,293; other ranks, 472,001.

The foregoing figures were contained in a written statement sent by Premier Asquith to the house of commons.

British casualties up to August 21 as given officially on September 14 were 381,883. This shows a total between that time and October 9 of 111,311, or a daily average of 2,271. Losses between June 9 and August 21 averaged about 1,500 daily. The marked increase in the fall over the summer losses may be accounted for by the heavy fighting on the western front last month.

STORM OF SHELLS FROM GERMAN GUNS

on the front of Rykenhock, Perviase, the Maison de Bourg, St. Jacques Capelle and the ferryman's house."

The French communication issued in the afternoon, follows:

"Yesterday evening there was fighting of particular violence with bombs and hand grenades to the north of the River Aisne, in the sectors of Puisaleine and Quennevieres.

"In the Champagne district the bombardment in which both sides took part previously reported, continued during the night in the same locality, namely, near Tahure, as well as in the vicinity of the work called 'La Courtine.'

"There is nothing to report from the remainder of the front."

LITTLE CHANGE, RUSSIA REPORTS.

Petrograd, October 29.—(Via London.)—Tonight's war office statement says:

"Over the entire western front (Russia) there is no change in the situation. On the left bank of the Styr to the west of Rafalovka, the enemy assumed an offensive, which was repulsed near the village of Kostius-Novka. There have been some stubborn engagements to the west of Czartorysk, near the villages of Guta Lisovskia and Rudnik, at some points the bayonet being used. These combats, however, have not caused any modification of the situation.

"There is no change in the Caucasus."

NO CHANGE, SAYS BERLIN.

Berlin, October 29.—(Via London.)—Operations of comparative unimportance only on the western front are reported by the German war office in today's official statement, while along the battle front in the east no changes are recorded. The statement says:

"Western theater of war: At some points along the front there has been lively artillery activity. There also has been mine and hand grenade fighting. Otherwise nothing important has occurred.

"Eastern theater of war: The positions everywhere are unchanged."

ITALIANS FAIL, AUSTRIANS CLAIM.

Vienna, October 29.—(Via London.)—The following official statement was issued by the war office tonight:

"Russian theater: There is nothing to report.

"Italian theater: Yesterday the Italian second and third army recommenced a general attack with all their strength. A battle is proceeding along the whole costal front. Infantry attacks have been preceded by artillery preparation, which in several sectors increased to an incessant fire. Especially against the Gorizia bridgehead it reached unprecedented violence. Neither this fire nor the following storms could affect our troops. Our troops again sanguinarily repulsed the enemy on the whole front and maintained their positions, which often were destroyed. Where the enemy penetrated trenches he was repulsed by immediate counter attacks. The difficult day ended with a complete failure for the Italians. It was followed by a calm night.

"In the Dolomites the hostile activity continues undiminished. Here the enemy directed most violent attacks against Colonel Di Lana, where yesterday two attacks again collapsed. An Italian aviator bombarded the castle of Miramar.

Rome, October 29.—Today's official statement reads:

"Our troops continue with unabated energy their tenacious and successful efforts against the obstacles of the enemy's positions, undiscouraged by the bad weather.

"In the valley of Lazarine we have conquered the last positions remaining in the enemy's possession on the Mago Nori road, that is the Monte Giovo heights of Tierno Besagno Talpina.

"On upper Cordevole our forward march on the right of the Torrent has progressed to the west of the steep hill of Soraruez, which was conquered on the 18th. On the left we stormed more of the field forts with which the flanks of Colonel Di Lana was covered.

"In the Monte Nero zone gradual ascents of the summits of Vodil and Mrsli are being carried on and our attacks are overcoming the defense.

"Our Alpine troops again yesterday conquered several strong enemy trenches, taking 279 prisoners eight of whom were officers.

"Field forts and trenches also were stormed, first on Santa Maria height on the Ulazo zone, twenty-four prisoners being taken, second, on the heights of Pevona Podgora and third, on Carso, where the total prisoners yesterday were 210, including three officers. We also took a machine gun.

"Our aeroplanes made raids yesterday on Bainsizza and the Carso plateau, bombarding Valle Laca (Idria railroad and the Gorizia-Triest railroad) at several points, and hidden enemy camps and columns on the march. Notwithstanding the violent fire of numerous anti-aerial guns our aeroplanes returned unscathed."

COOGLER TO INSIST ON TRIAL BY BOARD

Will Take This Action if Investigating Committee Reports Anything Wrong With Conduct of Probation Department.

If anything is found to be wrong with the adult probation department of the Atlanta police force by Recorder George E. Johnson and Chief of Police W. M. Mayo, who were recently delegated by the police board of commissioners to look into the affairs of this branch of police work, Adult Probation Officer S. J. Coogler announced Friday afternoon that he would insist on a trial by the police commission.

Recorder Johnson and Probation Officer Coogler have been at "loggerheads" ever since Johnson was elected recorder, it is charged. Officer Coogler says that he has complied with every request that Recorder Johnson has made of him. He states that he has done away with the "Probation B" system, which was extensively carried on under the administration of former Police Recorder, Judge Nash R. Broyles.

Has Made Changes.

"I have made every change that Recorder Johnson has asked for," stated Probation Officer Coogler, "and I do not understand his attitude towards me. I have been informed by persons supposedly on the inside of all things around police station that he was out to get me. Every now and then some old 'bum' on Decatur street will stop me and will repeat such rumors, and say, 'Well, Coogler, I suppose Judge Johnson has got you at last.'

"I am doing the best I know how, and am trying to conform to every recommendation Recorder Johnson has to offer."

The police board at its last meeting received petitions from two police officers detailed to work under Probation Officer Coogler, stating that they did not wish longer to remain in this branch of the work. They requested to be put back to work on their police "beats."

Police Commissioner Edwin Johnson suggested that Recorder Johnson and Chief Mayo be appointed a committee of two, with power to act, to look into the complaints of the two under-probation officers. They were instructed to make a thorough probe into the affairs of the probation work and its conduct by Probation Officer Coogler.

Will Ask for Trial.

"Whatever action this committee decides upon," declares Probation Officer Coogler, "I will insist upon a trial by the police board. I think I am entitled to a trial, and have this matter thrashed out before the police board."

Officer Coogler has been head of the adult probation department for a long term of years. Under former Recorder Broyles, his probation department was one of the main features of police work in Atlanta. Thousands of "old bums," who, from all appearances were lost spiritually, morally and financially for usefulness in the world, were reformed by Probation Officer Coogler's interest in them. He began this sort of work on his own initiative while only a patrolman. Later, his work was recognized by Judge Nash Broyles, who became recorder of Atlanta, and Coogler was installed as the first probation officer.

It was a number of months ago that Probation Officer Coogler, at the demand of Recorder Johnson, did away with "probation system B." Under this system Officer Coogler received money from wayward husbands, who had been reported to him by their wives for non-support, and this money was in turn paid over to the wives. The husbands, under this system, were never brought into police court for trial, but the complaints of their wives against them were settled in the probation officer's department by their agreement to pay for their wives' support.

Recorder Johnson objected seriously to a police officer handling these funds without the knowledge of the court, and without Coogler being a bonded agent.

Atlanta New York Paris

Everything Is Bright and New and Interesting Right Now

In the Junior Department

(Third Floor)

To put it in a homely but expressive phrase—we are "keeping the pot boiling" in the Junior Department.

Fresh things are coming in almost daily, following the recent return trip to New York on the part of this department's buyer.

If mothers will but see with their own eyes what we have gathered for their daughters—surely shopping for the little folk takes on another aspect when there are such varieties to choose from as are now here.

The Junior Suits

We are told Atlanta has never had quite so large and inclusive a display of young women's suits as are gathered here—whether or no, this we do know and tell you plainly:

The Display of Junior Suits right now fully and beautifully reflects the approved fashions of this season of exceptionally charming suits.

The variety is the thing. One young woman may like a coat that flares from the shoulders, another may like a belted coat, another may like the military idea, another the Russian style.

We have collected all—that you may have the one you want.

Broadcloths, serges, whipcords, velvets, mixture weaves in browns, blues, greens.

$17.50 to $45

The Call for Plush Coats

finds us attentive and ready to answer most satisfactorily.

We have them in sizes for the little miss, two to six years, in sizes for the junior miss, and for the girls who takes sizes of six to fourteen years a most elaborate display, with particular emphasis on those at $11.50.

And still the plush end is but one phase of the coat question—the happy business that we are doing in coats these days has for its basis the generous proportions of this stock—broadcloths, corduroys, velvets, mixtures and the like—

$5 to $21.50

A Sweater for Hallowe'en

If the children are to play "Ghosts" and the like on chilly Hallowe'en, let's make them comfortable ghosts. Put sweaters on them.

Attractive styles, for children of all ages—

$1 and Upwards

Always Something New --in Neckfixings

today it is a new ruff, a new and ever so pretty and dainty collar with delicately traced embroidery—later it will be something else; but, that is another day—it will be well to stop by the neckfixing section whenever you are in the store.

MILITAIRE COLLARS begin at 50c and go gradually upwards. Any number of styles of embroidered organdie; some show a band of fur. All are so fresh and new, and there are so many of them, a woman will enjoy choosing here.

VESTEES 50c to $8.00; simple, little affairs that fit just under the coats, and others that are all but waists, all but the sleeves; of organdies and Georgette crepes and nets.

A WORLD OF OSTRICH BOAS, $1.50 to $12.50. Their popularity fully recognized—every color—black, white, brown, navy, light blue, pink, taupe, purple, black and white, maize and white, brown and white, navy and white. Particularly notable values at $2.50, $3.00 and $6.00; full, curly, colorful. A flat, French boa at $8.50 is smart; it fits around the neck.

Gloves a Woman Should Know

THE SOLITAIRE, $1.00, perhaps the best liked glove Atlanta has ever had at this price; all colors.

THE CAVALIER, $1.25, P. K. kid, black and white contrasting stitching.

THE COLBERT, $1.25, for street wear, tan and black.

THE NAVARRE, $1.50, real kid, very soft and supple, all colors.

THE BONO, $2.25, a 2-clasp kid with wide embroidery on back; white, black, taupe, pigalle and sand.

THE REPUTATION that Chamberlin-Johnson-DuBose Co. gloves enjoy has been gained and merited by the unfailing quality of the gloves we offer.

Above we list some few of them—they are kinds women may buy with every assurance that they are right.

New Teddy Bears, 50c and 75c

We hurry to tell of their arrival, since they are decidedly better values than we have found at these prices before.

Gay Season at Driving Club Opened by Hallowe'en Ball

Rostand's description of the night birds in his famous drama of Chanticleer found expression in the decorations at the Piedmont Driving club last night, the occasion of the annual Harvest and Hallowe'en ball which marks the opening each year of Atlanta's gay season.

There were spooky owls peering through the garlands and arrangements of autumn leaves and harvest foliage which formed the background of the unique decorative scheme. The fire eyes of pumpkin heads peered through the improvised cave at the end of the ball room where the Hallowe'en witches bent prophetically over the pot, in which the proverbial herbs were, that provoked from the great poet the lines "Bubble, bubble, toil and trouble." Black cats showed little green eyes looking through the branches of woodland bamboo, and there was all the witchery and good cheer in the atmosphere which makes "Hallowe'en" one of the happiest fete times of the year.

Harvest Flowers.

The gold lights of the harvest time were reflected in the luxurious chrysanthemums which formed the table centerpieces. The candlesticks had gold colored shades, and there were souvenirs in harvest flowers, miniature ears of corn, while the ice cream and bon bons were in pumpkin and corn designs, or simulating the harvest fruits. The menu proved there was culinary art directing the club cuisine, and included grapefruit and Tokay grape punch; stuffed baby lobster, and the Hallowe'en bird—the guinea hen. With it was served fresh mushrooms and peas. The heart-of-lettuce salad had Russian dressing, and the detail dainties completed a delicious repast.

Debutantes and Visitors.

There were three hundred and fifty guests in the various parties assembled, and it was the "first ball" for a bouquet of Atlanta's loveliest debutantes. In Miss Lawson Haines' party star guests were Misses Dorothy Arkwright and Harriett Broyles, who will be presented in society this winter. The other guests of this bright party included Miss Josephine Mobley, Miss Louise Broyles, Miss Margaret Traylor, Miss Mary Hines, Messrs. Lee Harvey, Curry Moon, Palmer Johnson, Ottey Mitchell, Wimberly Peters, Cator Woolford and Dr. Williams.

Miss Harriet McDaniel, the lovely young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sanders McDaniel, was among the debutante guests, and Miss Esther Smith's guest of honor was her debutante cousin, Miss Agnes Gray, who with Dr. and Mrs. Gray have come to Atlanta for the winter. Miss Helen Barnes, a Macon debutante, was in the party entertained by Miss Jennie D. Harris.

Among the distinguished visiting guests was Mrs. Corra Harris, the guest of honor in the party including Mr. and Mrs. Clark Howell, Mr. and Mrs. Ottley, Colonel Lowry and Captain English. Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Raine entertained a party of twelve for Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Burwell. Mr. and Mrs. Preston Arkwright entertained a party of twelve. Colonel and Mrs. Peel entertained a large party. Mr. and Mrs. Milton Dargan had ten guests, and there were many large parties among the unmarried set.

A profusion of fall flowers decorated the beautiful home, and readings by Mrs. W. C. Jarnagin was a delightful feature of the morning.

The occasion was a charming one, and there were twenty-five guests, including the club members.

Equal Suffrage Party of Georgia.

"Do your Christmas shopping early" is the slogan that the suffragists have borrowed from the Consumers' league, in connection with their bazar to be held November 1 to 3 at the suffrage headquarters, 217 Peachtree street. Everything suitable for Christmas gifts, from toys for the children to embroidered linens for the house, will be on sale.

The mere man, also, will not be neglected. Every day from 2 to 12:30 lunch and dinner will be served at popular prices, and the business man may secure a home-cooked meal within easy walking distance of his office.

For Miss Melson.

Miss Elizabeth Ramey entertained at bridge yesterday afternoon at her home on Myrtle street in compliment to Miss Christine Melson, a bride-elect.

Chrysanthemums and growing plants decorated the rooms, and the prize for top score was silk stockings. The guest of honor was given a dainty piece of lingerie.

The Hallowe'en dance at the Decatur Athletic club, which will be an event of this evening, is to be the largest and one of the most enjoyable entertainments in the history of the club.

It is to be a masquerade costume dance and many and varied will be the representations. The musical program has been especially selected and will include several well-known selections rendered by Miss Annie Laurie Cox, who is one of the south's best performers on the violin. A special brand of Hallowe'en punch will be served.

All of the members of the club are expected to attend and a number of guests have been invited.

Harvest and Hallowe'en At East Lake Country Club

All the gayety of the country barn dance and the quaintness of Hallowe'en celebration will combine to make the Harvest and Hallowe'en dinner-dance tonight at East Lake one of the most enjoyable events of the autumn social season.

Most of the guests will be in harvest costume, the ladies in the picturesque garb of reapers, milk-maids and sunbonnet girls, and the men in jeans and overalls, top boots and big straw hats.

The decorations will utilize the elaborate symbolism of harvest and Hallowe'en, and a special country dinner will be served at 7 o'clock. A large orchestra will play for dancing, and there will be some surprise features.

The regular dance reception committee is in charge—Mr. Paul Goldsmith, chairman; Messrs. Locke Crumley, Charles Baldwin, William Moore and Milton Coleman—and one of the most delightful entertainments in the club's history is planned.

Gay Automobile Pageant Will Be Festival Feature

Hundreds of gaily decorated automobiles will compose the most spectacular "beauty" parade in the history of Dixie on Wednesday of the Harvest Festival, when the Floral and Decorated Auto Pageant moves through the principal downtown streets.

Scores of the city's best known automobilists are entering their cars for the event. Three carloads of beautiful decorations have arrived from the east, where they were ordered by managers of the festival.

A meeting was held Friday afternoon of the committee supervising the pageant, which is composed of W. J. Stoddard, chairman; Asa G. Candler, Jr., vice chairman; Forrest Adair, Sr., and Charles W. Tway.

Letters are being forwarded to all of the city's automobilists, and it is estimated that fully 500 cars will be in line. Scores of these will come from other towns and cities in the state, and in each out-of-town car a beautiful young girl, selected by a specially appointed committee of her town, will reign supreme.

Competent decorators and designers have been employed by the parade committee. Autoists who enter the event will only have to turn their cars over to the designers. Marietta sent word Friday afternoon that she would send ten elaborately decorated motors, and a number of other cities have also signified their intention of being represented.

The parade will be held at 10 o'clock in the morning. At least five of the cars will represent the different organizations and institutions supported by the city government, such as charitable homes and the like.

Prizes will be given the most distinctive cars, the first of which will be $100, the second $75 and the third $50. The pageant will be the most spectacular in the history of southern processions.

COMMERCIAL HIGH SCHOOL WILL OPEN ON MONDAY, NOV. 15

The new Commercial High school, on South Pryor street, will be opened November 15, unless present plans of the board of education and the contractors fail.

Superintendent L. M. Landrum states that he will begin to place the furniture in the building on November 7, and by the 15th everything will be in readiness for the formal opening of the school.

The school will be the first co-educational high school the city has ever tried. While there has been co-education in the grammar schools, the boys and girls have never been educated together in the high schools.

The boys and girls who will attend the Commercial High school will be the pupils from the business department of the Boys' High school and the girls from the commercial department of the Girls' High school. There will be about 670 girls and 220 boys.

800 Bales of Cotton Burned.

Montgomery, Ala., October 29.—As the result of a fire at Newville, Ala., early today a loss of approximately $50,000 was sustained when a warehouse and 800 bales of cotton were destroped. The cotton represented the season's picking of the Newville community. The warehouse was a co-operative proposition.

BARBECUE TO BE GIVEN AT SOUTHEASTERN FAIR

In order to give those most interested in the Southeastern fair a view of the two large buildings and see how adequately the association is prepared to take care of the cattle show, and corn and canning clubs' exhibits, a barbecue will be given at Lakewood Tuesday, November 9, by the officers and executive council. Those who will be invited are the stockholders of the Southeastern Fair association, the city council, newspaper men of the city and the county commissioners. The fair buildings, which have been in process of erection for several months, will be practically completed at that time.

Many Babies Suffer.

Too many babies do not get started right because patience and the proper care was not given the hopeful mother. Experienced mothers now urge the use of Mother's Friend, to be had at any drug store, because they know from experience that this old, dependable remedy, applied externally, is absolutely harmless and is very beneficial. It soothes the muscles, cords and ligaments and relieves the undue tension, giving great physical relief from stubborn pains. Its influence in the skin and network of nerves cause the muscles to expand naturally. Thousands of women have successfully used it for two generations.

The International Novice Championship Typewriter Contest
At the Annual Business Show at the Sixty-ninth Regiment Armory, New York, October 25, 1915, WAS WON BY
Miss Hortense S. Stollnitz
Operating a Model 10
Remington Typewriter
Miss Stollnitz wrote 114 words per minute net for fifteen minutes, a world's record for novices in International Championship Contests
This novice event is open only to those who have never used a typewriter previous to September, 1914. It is therefore the one event that gives a real indication of the machine's part in the development of speed in typewriting.
The question of typewriter merit is not determined by what the exceptional operator of exceptional training can do, but by what the average operator can do.
And the best answer to this question, afforded by any speed contest, is, what can the novice do?—for the novice stage is the stage through which all operators must pass.
By this test the Remington has proved itself to be THE operator's machine—the machine which enables the operator to do the most and the best work from the very outset, and ever after.

THIS LITTLE WOMAN GAINS 35 POUNDS ON THREE BOTTLES

Another Thin, Frail, Nervous and Pain-Racked Woman Is Restored to Health and Happiness by Tanlac. Only Weighed 105 Pounds. Now Weighs 140.

"Honestly I am getting so fat I am really ashamed to tell you how much I have gained," said Mrs. Nettie McCarr, who lives at 1806 Eighteenth Avenue, North, Nashville, Tenn., when seen several days ago by the Tanlac representative.

"Actually it has gotten to be a regular joke, for I have gotten so stout that my clothes are too small for me, and every dress I wore last winter will have to be made over again," she continued, "and the change in my general appearance is so wonderful that my friends and neighbors are all wondering what I have been doing with myself. When they ask me I just tell them I have been taking Tanlac, and it is a fact, for I have just finished my third bottle, and have gained 35 pounds.

"When I began taking the medicine I only weighed 105 pounds and now I weigh 140, and never felt better in my life.

"I always enjoyed very good health up to about two years ago, when I began having indigestion, which gradually developed into a very bad form of stomach trouble. This trouble began pulling me down and I finally got so I could not eat anything at all scarcely, and had to diet myself continually. I had to avoid sweets of all kinds and always after eating I would suffer for hours.

"I was also very nervous and dizzy and was easily tired. I finally got so weak I could not walk any distance without resting. My kidneys must have been affected also, for I had severe pains in my sides and back.

"My sister, Mrs. Minnie Hall, came to see me one day and she looked so well I asked her what she had been taking. She told me Tanlac, and I made up my mind right then and there to give it a trial.

"Acting on her advice, I bought a bottle and have been taking it regularly since. Of course I expected it to help me, but if anyone had told me that there was a medicine on earth that would have helped me like Tanlac I would not have believed them.

"The medicine seemed to be just the one thing I needed, for it just filled me with new life and energy from the very first dose. In only a few days my appetite returned and I began to enjoy my meals and everything seemed to agree with me and nourish me.

"I am no longer nervous and dizzy-headed like I was and can now sleep like a child. In fact, I feel just like a person who had been made all over again. I hope every suffering woman will hear about it."

Commenting on Mrs. McGarr's remarkable statement, Mr. G. F. Willis, Southern Distributor of Tanlac, said:

"In this age the public is accustomed to strange and unusual occurrences, and the public prints are filled with sensation after sensation from day to day, but in spite of this, the story of this frail little pain-racked, nervous woman, almost given up in despair, wasting away from day to day, would hardly be believed if these papers did not have the names, facts, figures, city and street addresses to prove the extraordinary statement in this case.

"The patient, who is well known in Nashville, told this interesting story of her own free will and accord, and many of her friends and neighbors are in possession of these facts.

"After all, there is nothing really unusual about Mrs. McGarr's case, as thousands of others; in fact, hundreds of thousands are now using the medicine and are testifying daily to the marvelous benefits they have derived from its use."

Tanlac is sold in Atlanta exclusively by the Jacobs' Pharmacy Co.—(adv.)

GOVERNOR AND WIFE GUESTS OF AD MEN AT THEATER TONIGHT

Governor Nat E. Harris and Mrs. Harris have accepted the invitation of the Ad Men's club to occupy a box at the Atlanta theater tonight for "It Pays to Advertise." Saturday night was appointed as Ad Men's night and the club expects to be there in a body to show their approval of the spirit expressed in the play.

The Ad Men undertook the sale of tickets for this play to raise a fund for the Home for Incurables, which is one of Atlanta's worthiest institutions. Already a tidy sum has been raised and those who have seen the play pronounce it one of the best comedies of the American stage.

Those who want tickets should buy them from a representative of the Ad Men's club or at any of the following places: Cone's (two stores), Jacobs' (three central stores), Brown & Allen's, Coursey & Dunn's, Oppenheim's (on Peachtree), or at the headquarters of the Georgia Festival association.

SENATOR PERSONS URGES COMPULSORY EDUCATION

Hartwell, Ga., October 19.—(Special.)—G. Ogden Persons, president of the Georgia senate, was the drawing card at the Hart County fair yesterday. He addressed an immense throng from the speakers' platform. The speech was one of the most scholarly and eloquent that the people of Hart country have had occasion to hear.

He contended that in order for the state to realize her full mission and do her full duty by the future generations that she must look to the protection of her educational facilities. He reviewed the relations of the state university and its branches to the common schools of the state. He contended, however, that before the educational facilties of the state would be perfected or made fully available to the children of the state that Georgia must adopt a compulsory education law that would be enforced. In support of this contention he quoted freely from the census report of 1910 showing that Georgia suffered from more illiteracy than many of the other states, all of which had in operation enforced compulsory education laws.

Senator Persons is the guest of Hon. Julian B. McCurry and was introduced by Mr. McCurry at the fair grounds yesterday.

"I'd rather play golf than eat." "But what does your wife say to that?" "Oh, she doesn't care. She'd rather play bridge than cook."—Detroit Free Press.

HOKE SMITH SPEAKS TO CROWD OF 12,000 AT FAIR IN GRIFFIN

Griffin, Ga., October 29.—(Special.)—Inspired by an enthusiastic crowd of about 12,000 that overflowed the grand stand into the bleachers, Senator Hoke Smith delivered an address from an automobile Friday morning which was a complete survey of the cotton situation in the United States and Europe, and a convincing exhortation to the farmers to employ diversified farming. In opening, the senator congratulated the people of Spalding county on the splendid fair.

The rural credits issue came in for discussion and the speaker promised the introduction of a rural credits act at the next session of the senate that would be applicable to the south.

In closing, the senator referred to the part that is being played in the cotton situation by the European war. He criticised England for trying to force the United States to stand for an order declaring cotton contraband. He declared that, in his opinion, that if England would, the contraband declaration, the price of cotton would advance to 15 cents a pound in forty-eight hours.

AMERICAN LIVES PLACED IN PERIL

cavalry, stationed up and down the river from the Capote ranch, drew in when the firing was heard. These troops met fleeing Mexicans and opened fire without result apparently.

Details still were lacking here tonight of a reported fight between Carranza soldiers and Mexican bandits about 50 miles west of Matamoros. Unofficial reports received at Matamoros are that fifteen bandits were killed by the soldiers, who still are pursuing members of the band.

General Eugenio Lopez today sent 250 soldiers up the Rio Grande to take part, it is said, in the chase of bandits who caused the trouble on the American side of the border.

A brother of General Lopez is said to have been placed in jail at Matamoros in connection with the shooting of a man there two nights ago who gave his name as James Boone. Before the man died he told J. H. Johnson, American consul at Matamoros, he did not know the name of the man who shot him, but he could identify him. Boone later was identified, it is said, as Sandiego Blando, an Italian, of San Francisco. His body was buried in the Matamoros cemetery.

CARRANZA PROMISES TO CHECK BANDITS.

Austin, Texas, October 29.—Assurances that effort would be made to prevent lawlessness on the Texas border were given Governor Ferguson today in a telegram from General Carranza, dated Torreon, Mexico. The message says:

"Referring to your message of yesterday informing this government that Mexicans have crossed into Texas territory, according to your information, I have previously ordered the military chiefs who are garrisoned on the border to arrest Luis de la Rosa and Aniceto Pizano and any rebels in Texas who enter Mexican territory. I thank you sincerely for the good wishes you express for the prosperity of my government and I wish all prosperity for the state of Texas.

"Very respectfully,
"V. CARRANZA."

"WILD BILL" IS WANTED ON CHARGE OF MURDER

Notorious Moonshiner Is Wanted for Killing of Negro in Baldwin.

Milledgeville, Ga., October 29.—Charles T. Williams, alias "Wild Bill," Georgia's most notorious moonshiner, stands charged by the coroner's jury of Baldwin county with the killing of Eli Wells, a negro, who was shot near Fraley's Ferry last Saturday night. Wells had his head literally blown off his body by a gun-shot fired at close range and for awhile the affair was shrouded in mystery. Sheriff S. L. Terry and Special Officer A. O. Wilson carried on a vigorous investigation until they landed Walter Simmons, another negro, in jail as an important factor in the case. Simmons confessed his knowledge of the crime and declared "Wild Bill" did the deed. Coroner C. I. Newton impaneled a jury, who, after going exhaustively into the case, promptly found a verdict charging "Wild Bill" with the murder.

"Wild Bill" has served two terms in the federal penitentiary on charges of moonshining and was recently convicted in Macon of having worked at a moonshine still and was given six months' sentence. He was out on bond pending appeal for a new trial at the time the alleged deed was committed. Up to the present time local officers have not succeeded in apprehending him.

BIG OIL SHIPMENT RECEIVED AT TAMPA

Tampa, Fla., October 29.—The arrival here of the oil steamer Herbert G. Wylie with a cargo of 29,000 barrels of oil, signalized the opening by a Mexican petroleum company of Los Angeles, Cal., of its new $100,000 oil distributing plant.

A. L. Paddleford, representing the company here, states that the company will construct additions to the plant and docks at an additional cost of $200,000. This is said to be the first of a string of such plants to be erected on the coast between New Orleans and Norfolk. The company will operate eight oil steamers between this port and Mexico in the oil carrying service.

The plant is being constructed by the Mexican Petroleum company, of Los Angeles, and has a capacity at present of 110,000 barrels. It is equipped to load railroad tank cars and oil vessels.

still the company is assessed and cheerfully pays its pro rata share of the cost."

Mr. Arkwright said the company would not mind putting down a groove rail when new tracks were laid, but did not want to throw away good T rails.

Fight? Why, Certainly Not!

"The city is not fighting the company," remarked Councilman Knight.

"Nobody ever imagined such a thing," replied Mr. Arkwright.

"It is the people who make complaints," said Councilman Ashley, "and we must do something."

"I have the proof," said Mr. Arkwright, "that the T rail is better than the groove rail."

"Well, it has not shown up that way in Atlanta," remarked Councilman George Freeman.

"The Georgia Railway and Power company has offered to do anything the city wants done on Grant street," stated Mr. Arkwright. "We have said we were willing to lay a concrete base or pilings, if wanted, provided that this would apply only to Grant street. Now, we are perfectly willing to guarantee the paving between our tracks on Grant street."

Councilman Freeman sat up.

"That is the first time I ever heard that," he said.

Mayor Woodward stepped in at that moment and said he sincerely hoped the Grant street matter would be settled so the city could save that $1,500 which is to be paid to the contractors if the pavement is held up.

Then It Was All Settled.

"But let's settle Ponce de Leon avenue," said Alderman Dunlap. He thereupon moved that the paving of the avenue be done at once and that the T rail remain down.

The motion was adopted.

It was then stated that the Gordon street paving would be settled under the agreement that the company lay a concrete base wherever it may be necessary.

Councilman Freeman announced that if the street car company would guarantee the Grant street pavement he would withdraw his—no, not fight—but "objections."

After the committee adjourned Mr. Arkwright told Councilman Freeman that he would submit his Grant street guarantee in writing to the mayor.

So all the differences between the city and the Georgia Railway and Power company as to street paving and rails were settled.

AT THE THEATERS

"It Pays to Advertise."

(At the Atlanta.)

No play ever given at the Atlanta theater has created anything like the enthusiasm shown over "It Pays to Advertise," which will be given for the last two times this afternoon and tonight. Not a single individual has seen the play, so far as one is able to hear, but that expressed the emphatic opinion that "it was the funniest play ever written." Certainly no play has ever been given where the audiences were more enthusiastic and laughed with more force than at this. "It Pays to Advertise" is a farce and tells the story of love and business in such a way as to win every man, woman and child to the highest pitch of enthusiasm. It is certainly the laughing treat of the entire season. Tonight the Atlanta Ad Men's club is giving a big party with Governor Harris as the honor guest and the house will probably be packed.

"Omar, the Tentmaker."

(At the Atlanta.)

The exotic mystery and bewildering fascination of the Orient has been reproduced with the utmost fidelity in the sumptuous Persian spectacle, "Omar, the Tentmaker." In which Guy Bates Post will appear at the Atlanta theater three days, commencing Monday, November 1, with a matinee on Wednesday. Especially noteworthy is the scene depicting the huddled streets and silk-laden bazars of the ancient city of Naishapur. The colorful and vivid costumes displayed by the hundred actors were designed by Eric Pape, a Boston artist, who has spent many years of his life in the Orient. As a sumptuous spectacle, "Omar, the Tentmaker," surpasses in pictorial lavishness and beauty "Kismet," which is the only other notable spectacle that has graced our stage since "Ben-Hur." Richard Walton Tully, author of "Omar, the Tentmaker," has to his credit two other highly successful plays, "The Bird of Paradise" and "The Rose of the Rancho," although neither of them received the metropolitan triumph that was accorded "Omar, the Tentmaker," during its five months' run in New York. Seats are now on sale.

Keith Vaudeville.

(At the Forsyth.)

Lew Dockstader, beautiful Ideal, dainty Cleo Gascoigne, Eleanor Gordon and those funny fellows, Smith and Austin, whose act is nothing but happy nonsense, are some of the features that make up an entertaining variety bill at the Forsyth this week. For next week Manager George H. Hickman has booked an all-feature bill, including such attractions as the Eight Dainty Co-Eds; such beautiful women as Naomi Glass and Stella Tracey and comedians as Victor Stone and Paul Morton. In addition to plenty of comedy, melody, bright scenes and costumes there will be interesting novelty acts.

"The Masqueraders."

(At the Grand.)

"The Masqueraders," the Paramount feature at the Grand, is one of the most pleasing and interesting dramas of the week. Hazel Dawn is seen to the very best advantage in roles as far apart as the antipodes, but she is perfectly natural in every one of them. From a barmaid, where she had gone in order to conserve the dwindling fortunes of her family, to the wife of a wealthy, but drunken, old man, she fights her way until a cut of the cards wins her freedom first, then the bullet of an assassin makes this freedom complete, she runs the gamut of emotions, but there is ample comedy to relieve the tenseness of the powerful picture. The ending is as pleasing as it is beautiful.

Geraldine Farrar.

(At the Grand.)

Although the immensity of the Lasky production of "Carmen," in which Geraldine Farrar will be seen at the Grand the first three days of next week, has brought high admission prices for the picture at various other theaters, Manager H. C. Fourton will adhere to the policy of the Grand in giving patrons the best obtainable without extra charge and will show "Carmen" at the regular 5 and 10-cent prices. With 2,800 seats available, the Grand expects to entertain thousands of the star's admirers. The biggest "set" ever used in the production of a photodrama will be seen in "Carmen." This is an exact replica of the Plaza de Toros in Seville. The plans of the building were made from old sketches. Over 25 tons of plaster of paris were used in the construction of the houses and the exterior of the bull ring.

"Trilby."

(At the Strand.)

"Trilby," with Clara Kimball Young and Wilton Lackaye in the principal roles, will return to the Strand theater today for a return showing. This picture has been highly commended throughout the United States and drew large crowds at its previous presentation at the Strand.

Miss Young has never been seen to better advantage than in the part of Trilby and Wilton Lackaye repeats upon the screen the successful portrayal of Svengali, a part which he created upon the speaking stage. The supporting cast is an especially strong one.

TO KEEP HER FROM FALLING

Would Have to Catch Hold of Things — Lost Strength and Flesh--Doctor Recommended Cardui — Results Gratifying.

Brookhaven, Miss.—"I am in fine health now," writes Mrs. H. M. Russell, of R. F. D. 5, of this place, "and have been for some time. I owe this good health to Cardui, I am certain. I think I would have been dead before this if I had not taken that medicine. I was down in bed five months last summer. I had chronic inflammation . . ., so the doctor said. . . . I suffered untold misery, mostly in my right side, but both sides hurt me—aching constantly. I got to the place where I couldn't even eat without severe pain. I had much headache and would often be quite blind from dizziness. I would have to catch hold of things to keep from falling. I lost all my strength and flesh. I became so poor that I was just bones covered with skin.

The doctor, ——, on his visit told me to get Cardui and go to taking it. . . . I took eight bottles in 3 months. In just a few days after starting with it, I began to improve and kept on until I got completely well. Today I am in really good health. I can do anything in the world in the shape of work. I am sure that I owe this all to Cardui. I would like to tell all women so."

500 LIVES IN JEOPARDY.

Refusing to appropriate $150 to build an additional exit for the children of the Tenth Street school in case of fire or other emergency, the finance committee of council must bear the terrible responsibility of placing in jeopardy the lives of 500 to 600 children attending that school daily, in the event of any occurrence which might create panic conditions.

Investigations made by the Parent-Teachers' association of the Tenth Street school, their conclusions and their effort to secure remedy, are set forth in the card of H. A. Maier, published in The Constitution today.

These investigations show that the school furnace is located immediately underneath the back hallway and exit leading to the yard or playground; that in the event of fire it would almost certainly start from the furnace or furnace room, thus effectively blocking the rear exit and making it useless as a means of escape; that in case of such fire there is only one available exit for the 500 or more pupils in the main school building—the front entrance; that the exit on the western side of the building adjacent to the annex is sufficient only for the 150 or more children in the annex itself; that an additional exit, giving practical assurance of safety, can be built at the eastern end of the main building, toward Piedmont avenue, for something like $150, and certainly not more than $250.

With these facts in hand, a committee from the Parent-Teachers' association went before the finance committee of council and asked for the very small appropriation necessary, as they clearly showed, for the safety of an entire school full of children, and the finance committee very promptly turned it down!

Thus has the finance committee of council taken upon itself the awful responsibility of jeopardizing the lives of more than 500 school children.

We are told that of the approximately $5,000,000 a year which Atlanta spends on maintenance about 80 per cent of it, or some $4,000,000, goes for salaries and wages. If that is true, there is something wrong about our municipal organization. We need to get it to a business basis. It is evident that too much money is being expended on salaries and wages at the expense of just such conditions as this which has been shown to exist in the Tenth Street school.

The action of the finance committee in this case approaches closely the inhuman; it surpasses reason.

Winter weather is approaching; it will soon be necessary to keep furnaces going full blast. If by any chance there should be a fire there and a single life were lost the public would hold the finance committee and council to a strict accountability for its failure to provide adequate protection at a cost that is even less than insignificant.

BANKS ASKED TO AID.

Coincident with the successful and what promises to be efficient organization of the Georgia branch of the Southern Settlement and Development Organization, call has been made upon the banks of Georgia, state and national, to contribute in accordance with their resources to the expense of the first year's work of this association.

President J. W. Motte, of the Georgia branch, has mailed from Savannah to every bank in the state a letter calling attention to the organization and its purposes, and requesting that it will contribute a small amount to the coming year's expenses, measured upon a basis of its resources.

Banks and business men throughout Georgia will be the first to benefit as a result of the work the Georgia branch of the Southern Settlement and Development Organization is now doing. They should be, therefore, first and most enthusiastic in its support. If every bank in Georgia will contribute the small amount asked of it to meet the expenses of the first year's operations, the organization will have a splendid working fund upon which successfully to push its work.

This organization, as will be recalled, was formed as the result of a meeting held on Tybee Island, near Savannah, in July, following which there was selected a board of directors composed of one from each congressional district in the state. These directors include men successful and prominent in banking and other lines of business all over Georgia; their names are sufficient assurance that the organization means business and is determined to get results. As stated in President Motte's letter:

> The main purpose of the Georgia branch is to induce through co-operation with the Southern Settlement and Development organization and otherwise, the further settlement and development of the state of Georgia with a type of persons having such experience as will tend to make them successful farmers and citizens, and whose operations will in no wise conflict with the interests of those who compose the citizenship of the state at this time.
> The first meeting of the board was held at Macon on the 20th inst., and it was unanimously resolved at this meeting that as the banks throughout the state will benefit materially by this movement, they be requested to contribute to the support of the organization for the first year.

The Georgia branch has already arranged to bring two valuable agricultural colonies into this state. Tracts of fertile agricultural land have been secured for them and the details of their location are now being gradually worked out. This is but a small beginning of the work that is in view. It is proposed to put many of these colonies at points throughout the state where the best and most satisfactory results can be attained.

This is a work in which Georgia has long been lacking. Through this organization it has been taken up on a purely business basis, and with the backing that has been given it, there is every reason to believe there will be rapid and valuable returns in the results of its efforts toward the right sort of colonization.

KEEP OFF THE TRACKS.

Statistics of accidents to men and boys who walk railroad tracks or attempt to jump upon moving trains make it appear that fatality is about the only sure cure for the track-walking and train-hopping mania.

President Fairfax Harrison, in a report just made, shows that 147 persons were killed last year as a result of this mania on the Southern railway alone. This is only one railroad system out of more than a hundred operating in the United States. The aggregate figures of the loss of life through unlawful intrusion upon railroad rights of way throughout the country must be appalling.

Persons not in the employ of railroads have no right upon railroad rights of way, and when they are killed as the result of going upon the tracks or attempting to jump on moving trains, the responsibility is wholly their own. The only exception to this rule is at grade crossings of railroads and public highways, and there the railroad shares the responsibility with the individual: Both must exercise due care and diligence in the prevention of accident.

But for intrusion upon rights of way or efforts to jump on moving trains, there is no possible excuse. Regardless of the fact that they cannot be held legally accountable for accidents under these conditions, leading railroads throughout the country are putting out educational propaganda upon the subject in the humanitarian effort to induce people to look out for themselves. In some instances they are publishing paid advertisements in leading newspapers, and many of them have posted warning signs at advantageous points, going to no small expense in the effort to protect people against themselves.

There is only one safe way, and that is to keep off the railroad tracks!

This is an injunction that should be drilled into every school child. It would be well to make "Safety First" instruction a part of the curriculum in every common school in the country. A few minutes a week, or even once a month, would be sufficient to instruct and warn school children against dangers of this sort. It is an instruction they would remember through their lives and hand down to their own children.

As a life-saving proposition the suggestion of introducing "Safety First" instruction into the common schools is well worth thinking about.

General Sir Ian Hamilton was recalled because he "didn't make good." There's where he can say "Shake" to those who sent him there.

If Carranza stumbles now it will be due to confusion over the hundred and one "warnings" given him.

"Great Britain All at Sea," is a headline. Certainly. She's been using the ocean right along.

Have a care that the Prosperity whirl doesn't make you too dizzy to hold your ground.

Incidentally, what Carranza didn't know about watchful waiting wasn't worth knowing.

The revolutionary spirit doesn't run high in Haiti when the ammunition runs low.

As winter comes on, a steam-heated war trench is preferable to a place in the sun.

Father Time Talks.

I.

Time comes, sayin' that he's happy for to say
He's the one old feller never takes a holiday!
Been going right along
Since first Creation's song
Set the stars to dancin', and the earth whisked in the throng!

II.

He tells me: "Dark, or sunny, I am ever fine an' fit:
I'm the Time that's money—but I never waste a bit!
I hasten—hasten on
From darkness to the dawn;
In vain the lightning follows: Once gone, forever gone!

III.

"Your statesmen seek to kill me in your halls, so great and grand:
I leave them in a twinkling in a disconcerted band!
For it's evermore—'Away!'
Not a breath's space for delay!
I wish you now good morning and the white light o' the day!"

"Good Night, Brother!"

Dr. Wightman F. Melton has this charming bit of verse in The Visitor, which is published at Nashville, Tenn. One fancies that he dreamed it under the old home-roof:

"Memory shall not cheat me! Even though I'm old and gray,
I will go back and live again that distant happy day
When schoolboy tasks and pleasures filled my life with endless bliss,
And as sure as bedtime rolled around I'd hear just this:

"'Good night, brother;'
'Kiss your mother;'
'Pleasant dreams!'"

"Jim" Gets in, Too!

Says Paul R. Grabiel, in The Arkansas Democrat:

"James Lawson says we ought to be real proud when one of our paragraphs is reprinted in The Atlanta Constitution, because, he says, The Constitution is the best paper in the south. But as a taxpayer, we think it is our duty to quit using Jim's bright sayings in this column, because every time one of 'em is copied in The Constitution it just makes Jim talk that much more, and everybody knows a city collector is paid for work and not talk."

Autumn Speaks.

I.

Autumn made a protest:
"They tell me I am 'sad,'
But why should I be sighing
When all my winds are glad?
Think you you would be grieving
If all this gold you had?"

II.

And even as I listened
A joyous breeze went by,
Kissing her golden tresses:—
No shadow of a sigh
Was in the light that rippled
From her tresses, to the sky!

Nuggets From Georgia.

No matter how poor we are, we're still rich enough to give happiness away.

Some folks seem to have entered the competition to beat Thunder growling on the road to Nowhere.

The mule also fills the bill as a lesson of stubbornness, in which that much abused animal is only matched by man.

Satan has cut out the "roaring lion" business—perhaps, because there was so much growling in the world that he couldn't hear his own voice.

"INSULATORS ARE OUT OF WHACK," SAYS MADDOX OF ELECTRIC ROW

Alderman James William Maddox, judging from what he remarked yesterday morning at the city hall, is not very optimistic about a settlement of the differences between the board of electrical control and the city electrician.

When asked if the wires were still crossed and the circuit short, he replied:

"Yes, and the insulators are out of whack."

HIS AUTO WAS STUCK IN A RUT AND HE WANTS STREET "PASSABLE"

When it comes to street improvements, one citizen of Atlanta would be satisfied if his auto wouldn't get stuck in a rut.

Nathan E. Lowenthal, of 51 Mell street, appeared before the street committee of council yesterday afternoon and stated that his auto had to be pulled out of a rut by three other cars near his home. He wanted something done to get the street "passable." He was informed that he might have to wait until next year's appropriation is made for street work.

NEW SEWER IS NEAR COMPLETION AND WILL SERVE LARGE SECTION

Councilman Sam Freeman, of the tenth ward, reports that the new trunk sewer to connect the Fort McPherson section with the Dickner avenue-Lakewood sewer, is nearing completion.

"It will cost about $3,000," states Councilman Freeman, "and when finished will give sewer connection to a large number of homes. It is one of the most needed pieces of work that has been done in our part of the city in many years."

IT IS "UNCLE BOB," NOT "UNCLE DICK," IF YOU WANT TO GET IT RIGHT

It is something terrible in Darktown parlance to call "yer outer yer name." In city hall circles, now that officials are calling for their full cognomens, the following correction must be made:

Recently City Clerk Walter Cary Taylor gave it out that Alderman Seawright's full name was James Richard Seawright, and everybody began to call the alderman "Uncle Dick." It now transpires that his full name is James Robert Seawright, and so he should properly be spoken to as "Uncle Bob."

ONE-WAY STREETS SUGGESTED TO RELIEVE TRAFFIC CONGESTION

When the special council committee to revise the traffic laws meets next week it will probably consider making Whitehall, Peachtree and Forsyth streets one-route thoroughfares.

It is being proposed by Councilman Frank Reynolds that such a traffic change be made and the matter has been submitted to President Arkwright, of the Georgia Railway and Power company.

If the change is made all vehicles going north would take Whitehall and Peachtree streets, while those going south would take Forsyth street.

A still further change proposed is to remove the car tracks on Broad street and make that street open for traffic in either direction.

SCHOOL TOTS TAKEN TO PARK TO BE TAUGHT THE "AESTHETIC"

Park Manager Joseph Oscar Cochran was host yesterday to a very happy lot of little guests.

Miss Daisy Richards, who teaches the first grade in the North Avenue grammar school, took her young charges out for an outing and she selected Piedmont park as the place for the picnic. The forty-five little boys and girls spent two hours in the woods gathering autumn leaves for their scrap-books.

It is the part of the present training of the young idea to teach something of the aesthetic, and parks, flowers, birds and autumn leaves are great object-lessons in that line.

BRONZE TABLET TO DR. STRICKLER TO BE UNVEILED SUNDAY MORNING

A bronze tablet in honor of Dr. Givens Brown Strickler, former pastor of the Central Presbyterian church and until his death the foremost theologian in the Southern Presbyterian church, will be unveiled Sunday morning, November 10. Dr. Theron H. Rice, pastor succeeding Dr. Strickler, who is now a member of the faculty of Union Theological seminary, will deliver the memorial sermon. Special invitations have been sent out under the direction of Dr. Dunbar H. Ogden, present pastor of the Central church, to old friends of Dr. Strickler and former members of his congregation.

At the beginning of the civil war Dr. Strickler, then a young man, enlisted in Stonewall Jackson's brigade. He made a brilliant record as a soldier and soon rose from the ranks to a captaincy.

When the war was over Mr. Strickler entered upon studies for the ministry and his subsequent career as pastor of two churches and professor of systematic theology at the Union Theological seminary, Richmond, Va. His activities in each of these positions was marked off in periods of fourteen years each.

Dr. Strickler's first pastorate was at the Tinkling Springs Presbyterian church in the valley of Virginia. This entire section had originally been settled with Presbyterians and his church was a very wealthy one, with a history covering 150 years. In the early part of 1883 he came to Atlanta as pastor of the Central Presbyterian church. The present church structure was built under his direction, and while it was replacing the former building the congregation worshiped in the old courthouse.

In 1896 Dr. Strickler ceased from active preaching with the unusual record of having served only two congregations. For several years the Union Theological seminary had importuned him to accept the chair of systematic theology. So he accepted in 1896.

Dr. Strickler was in wide demand as a speaker on many different occasions. At the memorial services held in honor of Jefferson Davis in 1889, the greatest of that kind ever held in the Georgia state capitol, he delivered the principal address.

Dr. Strickler was born April 25, 1840, and died August 4, 1913, at the age of 73. Dr. C. W. Strickler, of the city, is his son.

The Holland Letter

From Peru and from Chile are soon to be brought copper in vast amounts to the United States, and after the war is ended a considerable part of the copper output of these South American states will be exported to Europe. Early in November several of those who are leaders in the development of the copper industry in the United States will be in New York, some of them being chiefly occupied in the development of the copper industry in Utah and Montana. Conspicuous among them is Mr. Jackling, whose career contains as romantic a story as is told of any of those who, beginning in obscurity, afterwards gained influence and wealth through the development by them of mining property.

When McKinley was president Mr. Jackling was paid wages, and he was employed in the mines as many other day laborers were. He was not occupied, however, with labor questions or with organizations, but he took up the study of chemistry and geology, and having revealed unusual executive ability and constructive force, he was rapidly promoted. In the far west one of his achievements deemed worthy to rank with any of the others with which his name is identified was his solution of a problem which others before his day had declared was not to be solved. The great Utah mountain long ago was known to contain vast amounts of copper, but it was ore of low grade, and none of the engineers was able to say how it could be utilized for commercial purposes. Mr. Jackling showed how this could be done, and the property is now one of the largest copper mining properties of the United States. He is understood to have discovered the way in which 75 per cent of this low grade copper can be released and made marketable, and has been for some time occupied with the problem whose solution will show how the remaining part of the ore can be obtained.

Mr. Jackling is to be in New York the first week in November, and several others who are identified in a large way with the copper industry will also be for a few days in New York.

A Matter of Interest.

Naturally, the pending large, possibly enormous, development of the copper industry in South America will concern these leaders in the western copper industry, not anxiously, perhaps, but as a matter of interest associated with the steady development in large measure of the world's copper industry.

One difference between the Cerro de Pasco mines in northern Peru and the mines in Chile which the Guggenheims have begun to operate upon a large scale, lies in the fact that the Peruvian mine is very old. Its history goes back almost to the conquest of South America by the Spaniards, whereas the mines of Chile have, in a large way, been developed only within a comparatively short time. Probably the Chile mines have larger deposits of copper than the Peruvian mine, but both are very rich in this ore. The Guggenheims have invested capital amounting to millions in perfecting the Chile property, having obtained, upon excellent terms, concessions from Chile for opening and operating. Both mines must depend upon railway transportation for taking the ore from the mines to the seaports. The Guggenheims, with their Chile copper mines, did not have the advantage in proximity to the seacoast which Charles M. Schwab's investment in Chilean iron properties possessed. It was necessary for the Guggenheims to build a railroad in order to perfect their plant and make transportation to the seaport, but it is a short road, comparatively speaking, but Mr. Schwab can transport his ore to the steamers by gravity railroad.

The Cerro de Pasco Mine.

The Cerro de Pasco (the Spaniards called it the Cerro da Pasco mine) was one of the objects Peru had in mind when it entered into contract with Henry Meiggs to build a railroad from Callao, Lima's seaport, up and over the Andes. The mine is situated upon the eastern slope of the Andes. It was worked by the Spaniards, who had no regard for the copper, but were intent upon securing the rich silver ore. When they had, as they presumed, exhausted the silver they abandoned the mine and for two hundred years at least it was unthought of. After Peru—in part under the stimulus of the late William R. Grace—began to awaken from the lethargy which had for years characterized her and her leading men had gained some understanding of the magnificence of the natural riches of Peru, in addition to the recognized riches of her nitrate deposits, investigation of the abandoned mine was made. The experts reported that it was loaded down with copper ore, and that it could be worked for years to great commercial advantage, provided some other transportation than that furnished by the backs of the llamas could be secured. Under the Grace regime, in association with English capital, the railroad was completed to the summit of the Andes, and about that time J. P. Haggin and others secured concessions for operating the mine. It was necessary to extend the railroad from its terminal at the summit of the Andes to the mine, and Mr. Haggin assisted greatly in this construction work. He also planned the construction of another railroad from the mines to a seaport on the northern coast of Peru.

What is now under way with the Cerro de Pasco Mining company is a reorganization, presumably for the sake of securing adequate financing of the property. It is observed that the reorganizers have adopted the plan so warmly advocated by Francis Lynde Stetson of issuing stock which is without nominal par value. These two mines upon the western slope of the Andes, one in northern Peru and the other in Chile, perhaps 1,500 miles south, will considerably influence the copper markets of the world after normal conditions are restored. In addition, there should be resumed heavy exports of copper from Bolivia. These exports have, in fact, if not in name, been placed under embargo because Great Britain, which heretofore has bought this Bolivian copper, is not able now to transport it from Bolivia.

GOVERNOR HARRIS RETURNS TO OFFICE IN IMPROVED HEALTH

After a vacation in Florida and several days' stay at his old home in Macon, where he visited the state fair, Governor Harris returned to his office in the statehouse yesterday morning. The governor declared that he is feeling much improved in health, and that he will start to work at once preparing his message to the extra session of the general assembly, which convenes next Wednesday.

Immediately upon his return to Atlanta Governor Harris took up the matter of issuing the warrants to county school superintendents, which warrants will be hypothecated for the payment of the school teachers.

Governor Harris indicated that he will not attempt to direct the legislature toward any particular legislative program in connection with the subjects indicated for their consideration in his call for the extra session, which subjects are appropriations, prohibition, Western and Atlantic railroad commission, state cotton warehouse measures, revision of the state game and fish law and revision of the automobile license tax law.

PARDON FOR STRIPLING NOT LIKELY TO COME VERY SOON

Although the application for a pardon for Edgar Stripling has been under the advisement of the state prison commission for a number of months, it has not yet been reported upon to Governor Harris by the commission. Governor Harris, who, upon a visit some months ago to the state farm, promised the young daughter of Stripling to pardon her father before his term as governor expires, indicated Friday that he will not act upon this promise until the latter part of his term, unless the prison commission hands down a favorable recommendation in the meantime, which is not regarded as likely.

CHARTER IS ISSUED FOR NEW BANK IN SAVANNAH

Secretary of State Phil Cook Friday issued a charter for the Wage Earners' Savings bank, of Savannah, an institution for negroes. The institution is capitalized at $50,000. The incorporators are L. E. Williams, Sol C. Johnson, R. A. Harper and others, all of Savannah.

SPEER ASKS RECEIVER FOR THE BANK OF GEORGETOWN

State Bank Examiner W. J. Speer Friday requested Attorney General Clifford Walker to file petition in the superior court of Quitman county for a receiver for the Bank of Georgetown. This action had been contemplated for some time, but had been delayed pending the outcome of negotiations by which it had been hoped to put the bank on its feet again. These negotiations, it is said, failed.

STATE RAILROAD COMMISSIONERS RETURN FROM NATIONAL MEETING

J. Prince Webster, rate expert of the Georgia railroad commission, and Paul Trammell and Joseph F. Gray, of the commission, have returned from the west coast, where they attended the annual meeting of the National Association of Railroad Commissioners.

BIG APPROPRIATION WILL BE ASKED TO FIGHT BOLL WEEVIL

At the extra session of the general assembly State Entomologist Lee Worsham and merchants, bankers and other business men of the state will go before the appropriations committee and ask that a special appropriation amounting to some $50,000 be made for the purpose of fighting the boll weevil, which, within the last several months, has made rapid inroads into Georgia.

Committee Refuses Relief Against Dangerous Exposure In Atlanta School Building

Editor Constitution: At a meeting of the Parent-Teacher association of Tenth Street school on Tuesday last our attention was called to the fact that there were only two exits from the school to serve over 600 children. The exit in the rear, being practically over the furnace, would be almost sure to be useless in case of fire starting near the furnace. There is an exit on the side of the annex, but only large enough to provide for the 150 children in the annex. The front entrance is not very far from the furnace and would not be sufficiently large to allow 600 children to escape if the fire spread rapidly.

Jesse Armistead, of the city council, attended this meeting and promised to try to get the city council to transfer the small amount needed, $150, from the amount left over from the appropriation for the Tenth Street annex.

The account in the newspapers of the fire in the school at Peabody, Mass., in which twenty children lost their lives brings home the danger to which our children are exposed by city neglect.

Will you call this to the attention of the parents of Tenth Street school children and ask them to use their influence with members of city council to have this remedied at once?

Back to Colonial Days.

(From The Philadelphia Inquirer.)

The announcement that a certain section of Philadelphia is to be paved with cobblestones will, no doubt, be received by joy by jesters in other cities, but when it is known that this is merely one of the details in restoring the colonial atmosphere to the grounds surrounding Independence hall, residents of the Quaker City will give a sigh of relief. The hall itself was restored years ago, and now a committee of the Philadelphia chapter of the American Institute of Architects appointed for the "preservation of historical monuments," has undertaken to restore the exterior of the famous building to the exact condition—or as near so as possible—that existed when the fathers met to promulgate the Declaration of Independence.

GOVERNMENT RESTS IN LOWREY TRIAL

Illness of a Juror Nearly Causes Mistrial--Bank Over $107,000 Short, Testifies Government Examiner.

Macon, Ga., October 29.—(Special.)—The government rested its case against Mathew M. Lowrey, former cashier of the Americus National bank, charged with embezzlement and abstracting of the bank's funds, here this evening and the introduction of witnesses by the defense will begin tomorrow morning. For a time today it appeared that a mistrial would have to be declared, owing to the illness of a juror. The court was delayed several hours, but resumed late this afternoon.

Mr. Bennett, the government examiner, was on the stand most of the day. He testified that the bank was over $107,000 short without deducting anything for shrinkage. The books, he said, were badly kept. For several days after a $15,000 draft had been credited to the Americus bank by the National Park bank, of New York, no entry was made on the books of the Americus bank, indicating the disappearance of that amount of money, said the witness. He could not testify positively that there had been any abstraction of funds.

George D. Wheatley testified that Lowrey told him after the failure of the bank that the $15,000 draft alleged to have been signed by J. W. Wheatley had been torn up by "G. D.," meaning George D. Wheatley, Jr., a clerk in the bank. He also testified that Lowrey told him at the time that he was making no charge of the draft against "G. D.," but that he suspected "G. D." had taken $2,000 from the bank the Saturday before the failure.

Mr. Wallace, a witness, placed in evidence $100,000 worth of drafts drawn and signed by George D. Wheatley, Jr., that he had not registered, and which did not appear on the bank's books at all; also two drafts billed out by Wheatley and signed by Lowrey, aggregating $16,000.

Attorney Guerry asked the court to rule out the counts concerning the Roach and Wilkinson notes and that a verdict be directed on the count for abstracting the $15,000. These motions were argued, the court sustaining the latter two and reserving judgment in the first one. There are thirteen more counts for false entries to be passed on by the court.

Regular Schedules On West Point Route Have Been Resumed

The Atlanta and West Point route, through its city passenger and ticket agent, F. L. Nelson, announces that it has resumed regular schedules and routes between Atlanta and New Orleans.

For the past thirty days through trains have been detoured via Gulfport and Hattiesburg. The West Point received information from the Louisville and Nashville railroad Friday that service on the gulf coast line had been resumed, so that passenger train No. 27, New York-New Orleans limited, which left here Friday afternoon, was enabled to pursue its usual route to New Orleans. All trains in future will be routed over the regular lines.

STEWART AND DOBBS MAKING AUTO TOUR

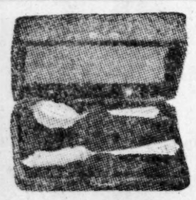

Fred S. Stewart, the popular shoe merchant, and Rufus H. Dobbs, well-known insurance man, left the city Thursday for a tour of several days through south Georgia and Florida. JUDGE JACKSON'S TRIAL SET FOR MONDAY WEEK

Reiterates His Innocence Following Conviction of C. C. Garrett.

Shortly before autoing into the country for a much-needed rest, Judge R. R. Jackson, second defendant in the "blackmail" exposures made by Stella Griffin, for which C. C. Garrett was sentenced Friday to seven years in prison, stated to a reporter for The Constitution that he was eager for an immediate arraignment.

"I am ready for the trial today—tomorrow," he said. "I preferred that they arraigned me Friday morning, because the earlier I am relieved of suspicion the better.

"I have no fear of consequences.

"I am innocent. Representing my law firm, I acted purely in the capacity of professional counsel to one who had come to me as a client under legitimate circumstances.

"There is nothing on which to convict me, so I am not afraid. Time and a review of the evidence will tell. My trial cannot come too early."

Garrett Appeals.

Garrett's attorney, J. K. Hines, notified the court when the verdict of guilty was delivered yesterday morning at 9 o'clock that an appeal would be made for a new trial. Judge Hill set the hearing on this appeal for November 27.

Garrett's bond was fixed at $2,000, a reduction in the $3,000 bond assessed when he was indicted by the grand jury.

No sentence has been imposed upon Stella Griffin. Action will not be taken in her case until the charges against Judge Jackson are disposed of. Friends are seeking to care for the girl, and a number of uplift workers are taking an interest in her case. An effort will be made to obtain her freedom upon probation, even though the matter has to be carried before the governor.

Jackson's Trial Monday.

When Garrett's case was finished Friday morning Judge George Gober, senior partner of Judge Jackson, and the latter's chief counsel, made a demand for an immediate trial, as Judge Jackson stated he would do in an interview in Friday morning's Constitution.

The oral motion to this effect, however, was overruled, and the date for his trial set at Monday week.

MORPHINE CRAVING MADE HIM A THIEF; NOW HE MUST PAY

This is the same old story of the "dope" fiend.

Dave Sykes, aged 45, who gives his address as Nashville, Tenn., wanted morphine, and to get it he became a burglar and is now in the Fulton county Tower, following his commitment to the superior court Friday by Recorder Johnson.

Early Friday morning Sykes gave out of his supply of morphine, and he broke into the Van Epps pharmacy, 135 Holderness street. Dr. Frank Eskridge, of No. 217 Lucile avenue, a near-by resident, heard the crashing glass window which was broken by Sykes in his entrance to the drug store. He telephoned for Police Officers Austin and Long, who discovered the "dope" fiend in the store, having in his pockets five tablets of morphine which he had found in the store.

He admitted his wrong to Recorder Johnson, and was committed to the higher court on the charge of burglary.

MANY A. M. E. CANDIDATES

Out for Presidency of Morris Brown College.

Athens, Ga., October 29.—(Special.)—The North Georgia annual conference of the A. M. E. church, in daily and night sessions here, with Bishop J. S. Flipper presiding, is having large congregations from the surrounding towns and country. Dr. C. A. Wingfield conducted the devotional exercises at the opening hour today.

The transfer of Rev. W. B. Fincher from the central Alabama conference to the north Georgia was read. Rev. W. B. Lawrence read a resolution which authorized the executive board of Morris Brown university to sell 400 of the 600 acres of land, located out of the city limits of East Macon. The land was purchased five years ago by Bishop C. S. Smith. Bishop J. S. Flipper has continued to believe that it was not the intention of the membership of the state to buy the land, but to erect a dormitory on the campus of Morris Brown college at Atlanta. Treasurer L. H. Smith, of the A. M. E. schools in Georgia, informed the conference of the financial needs of the schools and how the conditions should be met.

A surprise was sprung on the conference grounds today when a written statement was passed around which confirmed the rumor that Revs. C. M. Tanner, presiding elder of the South Atlanta district; John Harmon, of the Augusta district; Dean P. W. Greatheart, of Turner Theological seminary; Presiding Elder C. A. Wingfield, of the Milledgeville district, and Presiding Elder W. B. Lawrence, of the Washington district, were candidates for the presidency of Morris Brown university, since Rev. W. A. Fountain has announced himself to be elected to a bishop of the denomination next May at Philadelphia. Some complications are expected for the reason that Revs. W. D. Johnson, of southwest Georgia, and secretary of the general conference, and R. H. Singleton, of Savannah; P. G. Simmons, J. O. Iverson, L. H. Smith, Sr., W. G. Alexander and H. D. Canady are seeking the same place.

Eight ministerial delegates were elected to represent the body at the general conference in Philadelphia next May. The ministerial and lay delegates follow respectively: Revs. C. L. Williams, N. P. Tolbert, J. H. Myers, W. B. Lawrence, J. L. Butler, C. M. Manning, S. F. James and J. R. Fleming; lay delegates, W. H. Harris, M. D., and W. H. Kiser.

FORMER POSTMASTER SENT TO PENITENTIARY

Samuel L. Cook, former postmaster at Clem, Ga., was sentenced yesterday to two years in the federal penitentiary for taking $16 from mails passing through his hands. The defendant said that he knew nothing of the matter. The postoffice, together with Cook's store, burried to the ground, destroying all records, soon after postal inspectors were on the scene, it was said.

Winner of Omar Contest Will Be Announced Sunday

In Sunday's issue of The Constitution the winners of the Omar contest will be announced. More than 1,400 quatrains have been entered in the contest and the editors have been working long past the midnight hours in an endeavor to go through the large number and find the best.

Yesterday's mail was the heaviest of the week and contained no less than 578 quatrains for the competition, coming from all parts of the country. The contest closed last night and with today's mail the judges will settle down to the last part of the difficult work of selecting the winners. Those postmarked before midnight last night are eligible.

Meantime the public is showing its interest in the spectacle, "Omar, the Tentmaker," which will be at the Atlanta theater for three nights and Wednesday matinee, opening Monday night.

From Albany.

Among the many quatrains submitted yesterday was one from E. A. Landau, of Albany, Ga., as follows:

"Though Heaven and Earth commingling were as one,
And all the lustrous course of Stars were run—
Yet, my Beloved, I would wait for thee,
The while I ask—Ah, why by thee undone?"

From Highlands, N. C., Mrs. Mary Chapin Smith submitted three quatrains for the contest and another came from a member of the Forbes-Robertson company which just played Atlanta. The latter is J. Harry Irvine and he submits:

"Beloved, Thou it is through whom I die.
Though Earth and Heaven should in chaos lie,
Whelming the stars in utter Nothingness,
Full in thy path I stand to ask thee—Why?"

Richard Zeigler sent a printed quatrain as follows:

"Though Heaven and Earth were blended twain,
And Stars were robbed of their Celestial strain,
Undaunted, in your path, my Beloved, I would still remain,
To ask why I must suffer death's pain?"

Dr. G. Ford, of Smyrna, sent the following:

"Though heaven and earth be together blent,
And though all the light of the stars be spent,
I'd still wait in thy path, O Beloved,
And ask why my life, my heart so rent?"

A Teacher Enters.

W. C. Lowe, a teacher in the Commercial High school, submits:

"Though melt together, earth and sea and sky;
And sentinel stars desert their watches on high;
Fain would I haunt thy flight, oh, my adored,
To question why, by thine own hand, I die?"

W. F. Jones, clerk and treasurer of Elberton, sends:

"Though heaven and earth should blended be,
And starlight disappear from land and sea,
In the rayless gloom I'd loyal stay,
And ask why my life you took away."

From Harry Walker, of Blakely, comes:

"Together heaven blent with earth at rest,
Gleaming stars cease to shine in east or west,
Silently waiting in your path, O Love,
Why am I doomed to die in this great test?"

D. J. Blackwell submits:

"Though dim should grow these eyes, my dear Lenore,
Till I could see your face and form no more,
I'd sit and long to hear your charming voice,
And beg that you with it my life restore."

L. Dawson Hale enters with this:

"Though Sun and Moon and all Ethereal light
Should join the Earth in terrestrial Night,
Along its darkened pathway, my beloved, I'd wait to know
What joy my death could bring thee in its flight."

From Mrs. A. H. Milstead, of Athens, came three, one of which is:

"Though chaos black enfold the earth and sea,
Engulfing heaven and the stars eternally,
I'd wait, Beloved, till you unlock the door
Of my dear life—and Love shall find the key."

Mrs. Arthur L. Harday, of Hamilton, sends four, of which one is:

"Though heaven and earth were blended into one,
Though all the luster of the stars undone,
Beloved, still I'd linger in your path
And ask you why my very life you've won?"

SUES CITY AND RAILWAY FOR DEATH OF HUSBAND

Mrs. Etta Green Asks $20,000 Damages in Suit Filed at Columbus.

Columbus, Ga., October 29.—(Special.)—A suit for damages filed in the federal court here by a resident of Alabama against the city of LaGrange and the Atlanta and West Point railroad, brings to light very strange circumstances.

The suit is filed by Mrs. Etta Green, and is for $20,000 for the death of her husband, which is laid against the joint defendants, in that he was shocked to death by an electric wire belonging to the city of LaGrange and cut in two by an engine of the railroad company.

The petition sets forth that the city of LaGrange owns its own electric plant, and in supplying one of its customers ran a wire across the tracks, hung to inferior poles, and that a hard wind blew one of the poles down, allowing the feed wire to hang in front of an engine of the railroad.

The trains ran against the wire, breaking it apart, and causing the parts to fall to each side of the track. An employee of the company later seeing it caused it to be thrown from the track over a fence into an enclosure used by the children in the neighborhood as a playground.

The dry grass in this playground was lighted by the wire, and it began to burn. The children playing there did not appreciate the danger and so began playing "jumping the fire." The father of one of them, the husband of Mrs. Green, returning from his work, saw what the children were doing and realizing the danger went to warn them.

Walking through the grass to where the children were, he stepped on the wire, hidden from view at that point, and was instantly killed, the children all running, and, therefore, escaped a similar fate.

FLAGMAN CURRY KILLED.

Ashburn Man Is Crushed to Death Between Cars.

Ashburn, Ga., October 29.—(Special.) Josh Curry, flagman on the Hawkinsville and Florida Southern railroad, was crushed to death here today while attempting to couple freight cars on the oil mill siding. The accident occurred about noon and the unfortunate man, crushed and ground almost beyond recognition, lived about one hour. Three men were standing near by when the cars came together on Curry, but they were unable to remove him from the tracks before his feet were severed from his body and several deep gashes were cut in his body.

Mr. Curry had resided in Ashburn for a number of years and had many friends, who will be grieved to learn of his tragic death. His body was carried to Hawkinsville late today, where interment will take place tomorrow. The deceased leaves a wife and three children.

SUFFRAGE TABLED BY GA. CLUB WOMEN

Convention Refuses to Indorse Votes for Women. Next Convention Will Be Held in Augusta.

By Mrs. Harvie Jordan.

Savannah, Ga., October 29.—(Special.) Tabling the resolution brought before the convention in Savannah at the last business session today, placed the Georgia Federation of Women's Clubs again on record as not indorsing votes for women.

Mrs. Owens, of Augusta, presented the resolution, which was:

"Whereas, the question of political equality of man and woman is the most vital and prominent discussion throughout the nation and in the state, that the Georgia Federation of Women's Clubs is asked to give the cause of political equality its moral support by recognizing its earnest belief in the principle of equality."

Other resolutions acted upon were: One for the development of community interest; to make December 9 Joel Chandler Harris' birthday, a day for annual observance in the schools, and one to have every club in the state name a press chairman.

After an impressive memorial service, resolutions of thanks were read.

Augusta will be the next meeting place. A most delightful afternoon at Tybee brought the most important and enjoyable convention the federation has held to a close.

OVER 30,000 FOLKS PASS THROUGH GATES OF FAIR

Young Aviatrix Does Sensational Stunts—Today for Colleges and Travelers.

Macon, Ga., October 29.—(Special.)—The greatest crowd that has ever attended the Georgia State fair this early in the fair swarmed through the grounds today. The turnstiles showed that more than 30,000 people entered the grounds, a large portion of them being children. All of the schools in Bibb county had a holiday and it was a lonesome child, indeed, who did not go to the fair.

Miss Katherine Stinson, the 19-year-old aviatrix, made her final flights and did some sensational work, the feature of which was looping the loop while 1,000 feet in the air.

Tomorrow is traveling men's and college day at the fair. The traveling men are to be the guests of the fair association, and fully 500 of them are here tonight. They will have a parade tomorrow and go to the fair grounds in a body, where they will be guests at a barbecue to be served at the noon hour.

The officers of the fair association are more than satisfied with the financial success of the fair so far. Over 60,000 people have attended during the first four days, with the big crowds are yet to come. Made-to-order weather is prevailing.

Dublin, Ga., October 29.—(Special.) Judge A. F. Daley, of Wrightsville, president of the Wrightsville and Tennille railroad, died here about 4 o'clock this afternoon following a short illness of what is believed to have been paralysis superinduced by heart trouble and Bright's disease. He had a slight attack while trying a case in superior court this morning, but later was able to leave his room at the hotel for awhile. Just before 3 o'clock he was seized wtih a violent attack, death following about one hour later.

Several Title Contestants May Be Eliminated

EDITED BY DICK JEMISON

OLD PREP RIVALS MEET ON ATHENS GRIDIRON

Riverside and G. M. C. Stage Game This Morning—May Decide Prep Title.

Athens, Ga., October 29.—(Special.)—As a preliminary to the Georgia-Auburn game here tomorrow afternoon, the Georgia Military college, of Milledgeville, and the Riverside Military academy, of Gainesville, will lock horns Saturday morning.

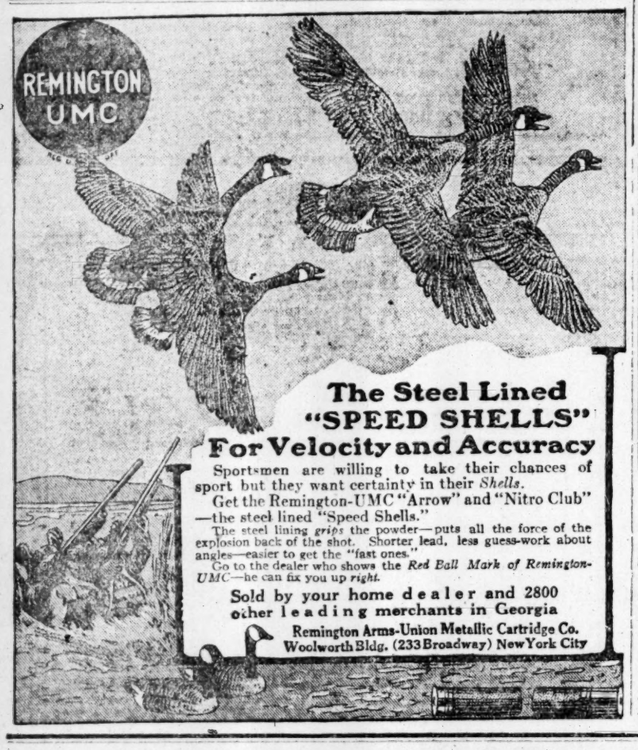

This game is attracting as much attention as the big college game and promises to be well attended. Special trains will be run from Milledgeville and Gainesville, bringing the student bodies of the two teams and also the football fans from that immediate section, who will attend this and the afternoon game.

The game itself will be a hummer, with the issue in doubt, though G. M. C. rules as a slight favorite. Both elevens being coached by former Georgia players, adds to the local interest. The same officials that work in the afternoon game will handle this game.

The two elevens are contestants for the prep football title of the state and realize that defeat will just about eliminate them from the running. This realization points to a hard-fought game.

The teams will line-up about as follows:

G. M. C.	Position.	RIVERSIDE.
McKinley	L. E.	Pope
Harper (Capt.)	L. T.	Haney (Capt.)

By Dick Jemison.

Everything is in readiness for the big football game this afternoon at Grant field, when Georgia Tech and North Carolina lock horns in the first engagement of what may prove an annual meeting between the two elevens.

The dope in advance of the game favors the Jackets, and the betting odds yesterday showed them on the long end of a 7-to-5 count.

Tech's ruling as the favorite is due entirely to the showing of the two elevens this season, Tech's record being far superior to that of the Tar Heels, and is the only dope available for the fans.

However, Tech has the battle of her life on her hands. The Tar Heels are considerably stronger than their season's record would indicate, and the reason why they have not shown as strong is that the coaches have been bringing them to the top of their game slowly and, in the majority of the past games, have used subs mostly.

This condition has worked against their scoring ability, and fails to furnish a real line on their ability. But when it is known that ten of the eleven men that played in Atlanta last season and gave Georgia a good licking are back with the team this year, one fails to see how they did not show as well to date.

A Local Touch.

There will be a local touch to the appearance of the Tar Heels here. Alf McDonald, who did the punting for the Jackets last season, is playing quarter and doing the punting for the Tar Heels this season, and will be watched with interest by Tech fans who remember his work last season.

Bill Townsend, who was a star at Riverside, where he also shone as a punter, will be in the Tar Heels' backfield. Many local fans know Townsend. He will play against a former teammate, Struppa, of the Jackets, being quarterback on the Riverside eleven, which Townsend captained.

All of the North Carolina cripples have come around in splendid style, and it will be the best North Carolina team of the season that the Jackets will face this afternoon. The Tar Heels arrive this morning, and will stop at the Majestic hotel. They leave Saturday night for home.

On the other hand, the Tar Heels will also line up against the strongest Tech team of the year. The Jackets wil lenter the game in fine condition and with a strong line-up—one that knows football now.

Forward Passes.

Both elevens are adepts on the forward passing game, and it is more than likely that the spectators at today's game will be treated to some aerial football stunts that will thrill.

Then, again, the elevens may prove so well matched and charge so strongly that it will be foolhardy for either field general to take a chance.

But the weather conditions and the dry field give every indication that the teams will resort more to the open game than in any of their games this season.

The kicking game is certain to be a factor. Neither has any star punter, though if the edge is anywhere, it is with the Tar Heels, as McDonald or Townsend will probably excel either Morrison or Fielder.

The field goal route may also be used. Center Tandy is a bear at this game, but Spence, of the Jackets, has a pretty reliable toe himself, while Charlie Gardner will be on the side lines ready to jump into the game at a second's notice and register a field goal.

The margin of victory, we believe, will be close, but we are inclined to believe that it will be on the Jackets' side of the ledger.

Tech Heavier.

Tech will be a trifle heavier than the visitors, but the margin will not be enough to cut much figure in the relative charging ability of the two elevens.

The Jackets will weigh about six pounds to the man average more than the Tar Heels, while in the backfield there will be four pounds to the man advantage on the other side.

Auburn Has Won 2 More Games Than Red and Black In Twenty Games Played

When Auburn and Georgia lock horns on the gridiron at Sanford field this afternoon it will be the twenty-first meeting between the two old-time rivals.

In the twenty previous meetings Auburn has won ten, Georgia eight and two have resulted in ties.

In the twenty games, however, Auburn has tallied 254 points to but 98 points for the Red and Black. The two tie games recorded were 0 to 0 battles. Excluding these games, Georgia was shut out by Auburn six times, while Auburn was shut out by Georgia four times.

First Intersectional Football Game of Year, Syracuse v. Michigan

The first international game of the year will be staged this afternoon at Ann Arbor, when the Syracuse eleven lines up against the University of Michigan.

Syracuse's defeat of Brown last Saturday and the defeat of Michigan by the Michigan Aggies makes the easterners the favorites.

LOOKOUTS RE-ELECT ALL OLD OFFICERS

Chattanooga, Tenn., October 29.—(Special.)—The Chattanooga Southern league baseball club, at its annual meeting today, elected O. B. Andrews president and Z. C. Patten, Jr., vice president for the eighth successive year. It was stated that the deficit for the 1915 season was much smaller than in 1914. The club will favor and lead, if necessary, a fight for a shorter schedule at the coming league meeting, the added two weeks this fall having been almost a total loss to the local exchequer.

DARLINGTON-GORDON.

Fine Prep Football Game at Rome Saturday.

Rome, Ga., October 29.—(Special.)—A prep football game that will have a direct bearing on the prep football championship of Georgia will be staged here Saturday afternoon, and will be attended by a great crowd.

Gordon institute, at Barnesville, will be the opponents of the Darlington High school, of this city. The issue is very much in doubt.

Tifton v. Quitman.

Tifton, Ga., October 29.—(Special.)—The Tifton High school football team leaves Saturday for Quitman to play the Quitman Highs. Tifton hasn't lost to a high school this year, and expects to take Quitman into camp.

LOCAL PREP SEASON WILL OPEN SATURDAY

G. M. A. and Tech High School Meet at Grant Field This Morning.

The first intersectional game of the school football season will be played this morning at Grant Field when the Georgia Military academy and the Tech High school elevens battle.

This is the first game for the local prep championship, and with the winning of the championship goes the trophy donated by the Princeton Alumni of Atlanta.

The game will be well attended. The girls of the Washington seminary will attend in a body, and the Cox college and Girls' High school students have also been invited to attend. The G. M. A. band will furnish music at the game.

There is little to choose between the two elevens. It is difficult to forecast the winner.

WELLS GETS DECISION OVER CHARLEY WHITE

Milwaukee, Wis., October 29.—Matt Wells, English lightweight, was accorded a newspaper decision by a shade over Charley White, of Chicago, in a ten-round bout here tonight.

Wells outled the Chicago boxer and sent blow after blow to White's face throughout.

Holding on the part of Wells counted against him. Wells won in the third, sixth, eighth and ninth rounds, while White took the fourth, seventh and tenth. The others were even.

VANDY FACES FIRST REAL TEST OF YEAR

Must Eliminate Tennessee This Afternoon to Stay in Race for Title.

Nashville, Tenn., October 29.—(Special.)—The Vanderbilt Commodores face their first real test of the season tomorrow afternoon when they line up against the University of Tennessee on the gridiron here.

The Volunteers have been making elaborate preparations for this game, and with the return of two of their veterans from last year's eleven, will enter the game more formidale than at any time this season.

On the other hand, the Commodores have been coming forward with leaps and bounds this season and are prepared to wipe out last year's defeat. The Commodores are reputed to have the best team they have shown in five years.

Alumni of both schools are coming to the game and a big crowd is expected.

ATHENS THE SCENE OF FIERCE GAME

Georgia and Auburn Meet There Today, With Dope About Even on the Outcome.

Athens, Ga., October 29.—(Special.)—With a beautiful October sky on the eve of the annual Georgia-Auburn game and the forecast reading for the same tomorrow, Athens is all agog over the big game here tomorrow.

There is even greater interest in the game than in the Virginia-Georgia battle a week ago, and with the roads in splendid condition from a week of clear weather, automobile parties from all over Georgia are expected to arrive Saturday morning.

Reservations at the hotels, the advance sale of tickets and the fact that football fans will get a double-header, a prep game being scheduled for the morning, points to the largest crowd that has ever witnessed a football game here.

Then, too, interest in the outcome of the game is intense. Georgia supporters believe, after their team's splendid showing against Virginia, that Auburn will be defeated, but there is enough doubt even among the most optimistic to make them want to go and find out for themselves.

Auburn Due Saturday.

The Auburn team will not arrive here until Saturday morning. It was at first reported that they would arrive Saturday, but they changed their plans, spending Friday in Atlanta. They will leave Atlanta Saturday morning, arriving here about 10:30 o'clock.

With the exception of Halfback Hairston, the visitors are reported to be in splendid condition. Hairston will not be able to get into the game, and in his place the versatile Steed will be seen. The remainder of the line-up will be the same as used against Mississippi Agricultural and Mechanical last Saturday.

Coaches Donahue and Tichenor and Faculty Director Bragg will accompany the Auburn team to Athens, as will the alumni of the institution from Birmingham, Atlanta and other nearby points.

The Georgia line-up will be the same as used in the Virginia game, with Neville starting the game at fullback instead of Holzendorf, though the latter will probably also get into the game.

The rival coaches expect a hard-fought game and have been driving their men hard all week, with scrimmages from Monday through Thursday, with signal drills today. Both announce their squads as fit as possible under all conditions.

The Line-Ups.

Although not official, the following is the probable line-up of the two teams at the start of the game:

GEORGIA.	Position.	AUBURN.
Thompson	L. E.	Ducote
Thrash	L. T.	Wynne
Conyers	L. G.	Fricke
Henderson (Capt.)	C.	Robinson
Garmany	R. G.	Taylor
McConnell	R. T.	Sample
Garrard	R. E.	Bonner
Paddock	Q. B.	Couchman
Dezendorf	L. H. B.	Steed
Powell	R. H. B.	Prendegast
Neville	F. B.	Bidez (Capt.)

The officials for the game will be: Graham (Washington and Lee), referee; Williams (Clemson), umpire; Councilman (V. P. I.), field judge. Dick Jemison was agreed upon as head linesman, but has wired that he is unable to be here owing to business engagements.

Washington and Lee May Be Taking in Too Much Territory on Saturday

The Washington and Lee football eleven may be taking in too much territory this afternoon when they line up against the University of Indiana at Indianapolis, and then again they may not.

At any rate, the "Generals" will furnish the south another comparison of how their elevens stack up with those of the west, Virginia furnishing a comparison on those of the east when she tackles Harvard and Yale.

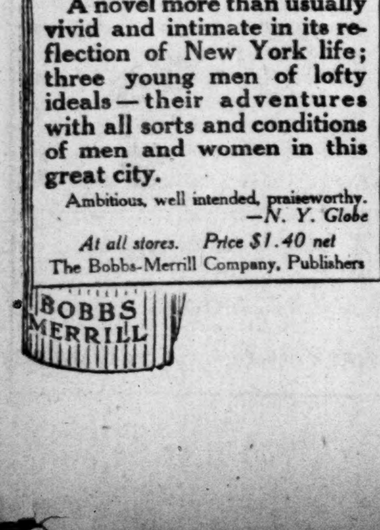

FOOTBALL RESULTS

Millen 10, Waynesboro 7.

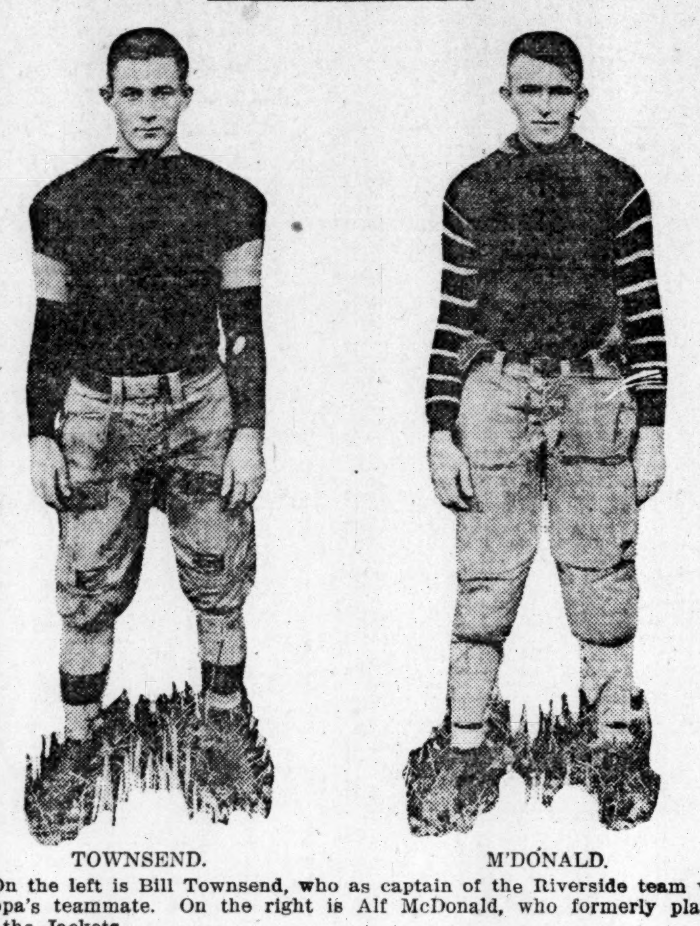

Millen, Ga., October 29.—In a fast game of football here today Waynesboro High defeated Millen High by a score of 10 to 7. The former team was led by Captain Walters and the latter by Captain Sullivan. Oliver and Simonlitz starred for the visitors and Wallace and Durham starred for the locals. The feature of the game was the 60-yard run and touchdown by Oliver. A large crowd witnessed the game. The locals were outweighted by the visitors.

Commerce 31, Athens 3.

Commerce, Ga., October 29.—(Special.)—The Commerce High school football team won from the Athens High school team here this afternoon by a score of 31 to 3. The Athens boys entered the game favorites, having previously defeated the strong Madison team, but it was soon seen they were to be losers. Athens' only score came in the third quarter, a beautiful drop kick by Rawson from the 20-yard line. Commerce's speedy backs were much in evidence and carried the ball for consistent gains. Cooper, Davis and Smith played well, with Cooper starring in the last quarter. He received a punt on his 90-yard line and ran with good interference for a touchdown. Rawson and Jackson showed best for Athens.

Familiar Faces Today In Tar Heels' Line-Up

TOWNSEND. M'DONALD.

On the left is Bill Townsend, who as captain of the Riverside team was Struppa's teammate. On the right is Alf McDonald, who formerly played with the Jackets.

Yale, Harvard and Penn May Be Beaten Again Saturday

Yale, Harvard and Pennsylvania, three of the biggest eastern elevens, are in danger of having the harpoon slipped into them again this afternoon. They have three tough games ahead.

Yale lines up again Colgate, Harvard tackles Penn State, while Pennsylvania plays Lafayette. It is these three games that furnish the most interest in the eastern gridiron circles Saturday.

Princeton, Cornell, Pittsburg, the Army and the Navy all have easy games on their schedule.

TWO TITLE CONTENDERS MEET IN BIRMINGHAM

Sewanee and Alabama in Annual Game Today—Hard-Fought Game Certain.

Birmingham, Ala., October 29.—(Special.)—A hard fought football game is the prospect Saturday afternoon, when Sewanee lines up against Alabama. Neither of these elevens has been defeated this season, while Alabama's goal line has not been crossed.

This game is the first real test for the rival elevens and both realize that to remain in the race for the southern football title they must win tomorrow. This realization points to the scrappiest game of the season on the local gridiron.

Advance sale of seats has been large and even Rickwood's splendid capacity promises to be taxed to the utmost.

Football Player Poe, Once Princeton Star, Killed by the Germans

Baltimore, October 29.—John Prentiss Poe, Jr., a famous Princeton football player in the early 90's, was killed on September 22 while fighting as a private with the British army in France. Word of his death was received from London today by relatives.

Poe was born in Baltimore forty years ago. He won international fame as a captain in the Honduran army, when, with a handful of men in a fort at Amalpa harbor, he opened fire on a Nicaraguan gunboat, sending it steaming under the impression that the Hondurans had a big force at the fort.

When last heard from Poe was a member of the "Black Watch" regiment.

MONUMENT TO THE HERO OF PITTSBURG HORROR

Pittsburg, Pa., October 29.—A monument is to be erected to Peter Vallone, who lost his life after rescuing six girls during a fire at the factory of the Union Paper Box company on the north side Monday. This action was decided upon at a meeting of prominent local Italians last night.

The public service committee of the city council, at a special meeting yesterday, adopted a resolution praising Vallone for his bravery and providing that the city, in recognition of his valor, defray the expenses of his funeral.

A Berkshire minister has six brothers fighting in the German army, his wife has [illegible] brothers in the French army and [illegible]eir son is fighting for England.

DEATH DUEL FOUGHT SIXTY FEET IN THE AIR

Workmen Battle on Arch of Bridge—Wife of One Man Sees Husband Killed.

Cleveland, Ohio, October 29.—A horrified crowd today saw a death duel 60 feet in the air on an arch of the new high level bridge over the Cuyahoga river, in which Frank Wright, storekeeper for bridge contractors, was killed by a fellow workman with an iron bar. The killing was witnessed by Wright's wife, who was making her way up to him with his lunch.

The two men wrestled back and forth on the arch, and both came near falling into the river several times.

After killing Wright, his slayer jumped from platform to platform until he reached the ground. Jack Browning has been arrested as a suspect.

New Thought Archbishop And Woman Are Indicted For Gross Misconduct

San Francisco, October 29.—Federal indictments were returned today against Dr. Newo Newi New, archbishop of the New Thought church, whom federal officers arrested with Dr. Marie Tully Graham early in the month and charged with gross misconduct, misrepresentation and misuse of the mails. Mrs. Graham was indicted also as a co-worker in the church, which the government alleges was a scheme to defraud.

The indictment alleges that Archbishop New is not "divine or immortal," and that he cannot heal the sick.

Both Dr. New and Mrs. Graham had been out on bail and deputy marshals went out to arrest them again.

HE HOOKED UP $1,800 AS BANK TELLER TALKED

Baltimore, Md., October 29.—By the use of a device resembling a fountain pen, an unidentified man hooked up a package of $1,800 and a check for $22,000 from the National Exchange bank here Wednesday, while three confederates engaged the bank teller in conversation. The men made off before the teller realized what had occurred. The police were notified today. The teller said the men appeared to be foreigners.

BISHOP OF VIRGINIA IN SERIOUS CONDITION

Richmond, Va., October 29.—The Right Rev. Robert A. Gibson, Episcopal bishop of Virginia, has entered Johns Hopkins hospital, Baltimore, to be treated or operated upon for a serious internal disorder. He is 69 years old. It is feared here he may not survive an operation.

JAILED FOR CLAIMING TO BE FLAGLER'S WIDOW

New York, October 29.—Mrs. Zora Emma Johnson, an elderly woman, who, by representing herself as the widow of Henry M. Flagler, late Standard Oil millionaire, procured from Frank J. Mahoney, a telephone operator, his savings and all he could borrow from relatives, a total of about $5,200, was sentenced today by Judge Mulqueen to serve from three to nine years in Auburn prison.

At Mrs. Johnson's trial Mahoney testified that he gave the money on her representation that she was Mrs. Flagler and would make him her private secretary at $20,000 a year. He was to receive also a bonus of $100,000 when the defendant's mythical castle in Spain materialized.

DAMAGE DONE TO LILLE FIXED AT $360,000,000

Amsterdam, October 29.—(Via London.)—The damage caused by the bombardment of Lille is estimated, The Telegraaf says, at 1,800,000,000 francs ($360,000,000). War taxes imposed by the Germans upon French manufacturing cities of Lille, Roubaix and Tourcoing, according to the same authority, already reach several million francs. Meat is no longer obtainable in these towns

STRENGTH PERVADES ENTIRE STOCK LIST

Friday's Session Marked by Breadth, Activity and General Upturn in All Groups. Bethlehem Sags to 540.

New York, October 29.—Greater strength, breadth and activity characterized today's stock market operations than at any session since the recent reversal in specialties. Dealings comprehended every part of the stock list, railways again assuming unusual prominence.

The advance began at the opening and was in the nature of resumption of yesterday's late rise. For a time specialties were reactionary, while representative shares and coppers gathered greater strength. Later there came a fresh buying movement in many of the high-priced war shares and United States Steel, while rails reacted slightly.

Steel led the market, except during the forenoon, when Reading and Eries among the rails, and Anaconda Copper dominated the trading. In the afternoon buying orders lifted steel to 87⅝, a gain of 2½, and within a slight fraction of its recent best. Steel was taken in lots of 3,000 to 12,000 shares and its rise was affected at some cost to the short interest.

Coppers responded to an increase in the price of refining metal with gains of 2 to 3 points, Anaconda making a new record at 83, a gain of 3½. Fertilizer stocks and petroleums, which recently fell back with other specialties, were materially higher.

All the war shares participated in today's rise, except Bethlehem Steel, which was extremely inactive and close at 540, a decline of 19 points. Among the more extensive gains in specialties were Studebaker, up 11½ to 172½, Willys-Overland 10 to 250, Baldwin Locomotive 9 to 137 and Maxwell Motors 5½ to 83.

Canadian Pacific led the rails, opening at a substantial gain and steadily rising 9½ points to 185½. Canadian's allied stocks like "Soo," Duluth, South Shore and Atlantic and Wisconsin Central were 2 to 4 points higher. Eries were again a marked feature, together with New York Central and Norfolk and Western. All the stocks comprising the cotton carrying roads were strong.

Further strength was affected by foreign exchange, demand sterling rising well over yesterday's close, despite increased offerings of bills.

Wabash issues were a feature of the bond market, together with New York Central debentures. Total sales par value aggregated $4,855,000.

Government bonds were unchanged on call.

DUN'S WEKLY REVIEW OF BUSINESS SITUATION

New York, October 29.—Dun's review for tomorrow, will say:

"Not only is there no step backward in general business, but each week the pendulum of progress swings over a wider area and confidence is further strengthened. Recent vagaries of the weather have not been conducive to the best results in retail distribution, yet substantial gains are nevertheless apparent in this direction.

The forward movement gathers momentum in spite of various opposing influences, such as the unstability of foreign exchanges, the congestion of freight at terminal points and continued dissension in the ranks of labor, and, while expansion is still most pronounced in war order lines, on the whole conditions and prospects are much less checkered and irregular than formerly.

Few discordant notes mar the cheerful tone of reports from the leading centers and trades, and since popular impression largely control events, the notable improvement in sentiment has an important bearing upon the future trend of affairs.

No one now doubts that the brighter day has definitely dawned and the change of spirit finds expression in the launching of many deferred undertakings, while more new enterprises are being started than for several years past.

Instead of the marked hesitancy and caution previously manifest, large projects are conceived and carried into effect in a manner that attests the increased confidence pervading the commercial world.

PROVISIONS SOAR; GRAINS UPTURNED

Huge Meat and Lard Takings Create Rise in Provision Values--Good Demand Helps All Grains.

Chicago, October 29.—Official announcement that Great Britain was not engaged in any peace negotiations whatever helped to give decided strength most of the time today to the wheat market here. The close, although weak, was 1 7-8 to 2 3-8@2 1-2 net higher, with December at $1.02 5-8 and May at $1.04 1-8@1.04 1-4. Corn finished 7-8 off to 1-4 up; oats with gains of 1-8 to 1-2, and provisions at an advance of 5@7 1-2 to 55.

Denials of peace rumors had substantial backing in foreign buying of wheat futures here and of cash wheat in Omaha. Besides, there was a notable revival of European orders to purchase flour at Minneapolis. A good export business in wheat was said also to be under way at the seaboard with estimates of total sales reaching as high as 1,200,000 bushels. Diminishing of receipts in the northwest counted further against the bears, and so, too, did a sensational upturn in freight rates from Argentina. In addition, gossip was current that free Canadian wheat would not be a possibility this year.

About the only bearish reaction of the day in the wheat market took place just at the close. Something of a display of selling pressure then was apparently due to a desire by longs to realize profits before the end of the session. On the other hand, a notable sustaining influence was the fact that the Winnipeg market had gone to a good premium over the December option here.

Corn for December and May delivery advanced in line with the wheat strength and to some little extent as a result of the big upturn in ocean rates from Argentina. Enlarged country offerings tended to lower the October delivery.

Active export demand lifted oats. Sales to the seaboard aggregated 1,000,000 bushels.

Packers' buying brought about the rise in provisions. It was said that shipping transactions here in the last few days included 10,000,000 pounds of meat and 5,000,000 pounds of lard.

New York, October 29.—A renewal of aggressive bull support caused an excited advance in the cotton market today, with January contracts selling up to 12.29, or 38 points above yesterday's close. That delivery closed at 12.25 and the general list was finally steady within 3 or 4 points of the best, or at a net gain of from 31 to 34 points for the day. There seemed to be no particular attempt in the day's news to account for the movement, but it was rumored that former prominent bull leaders had re-entered the market as heavy buyers.

The market recovered the bulk of yesterday's loss at the opening, first prices being 21 to 30 points higher on a renewal of the buying movement, which was in evidence at the close of the previous day, and covering of shorts. Relatively steady cables, suggesting that there had been no overnight pressure of spot cotton from the south in the market abroad, and the stronger ruling of sterling exchange helped the advance, which was also encouraged by private crop estimates ranging around 11,000,000 bales. Spot houses were considerable sellers on the advance, which also seemed to meet some opposition from local or uptown sources, but all offerings were very readily absorbed on very moderate reactions, and the high point was reached in the late trading, when December sold at 12.15, March at 12.49 and May at 13.62, or 36 to 38 points higher.

Rumors that leading bull interests had sent out many telegrams late yesterday advising purchases of cotton and that the plans to insert advertisements in the southern papers on Sunday setting forth their expectations of ultimately much higher prices, probably added to the nervousness of recent sellers, and stop orders were uncovered on the advance. After the first rush of buying orders, however, trading was comparatively moderate, and the buying was attributed chiefly to the bull brokers on covering, with general sentiment more or less unsettled. Exports today were 4,706 bales, making 1,265,893 so far this season. Port receipts 39,613. United States port stocks 1,290,112. Spot cotton steady; middling uplands 12.30; sales 130 bales.

New Orleans Upturns 36 to 40 Points.

New Orleans, October 29.—The bull element had full control of the cotton market today from the opening call to the close, and in the early afternoon boosted prices to a level 40 to 44 points over yesterday's close, thus recovering with a point or two to spare the slump of $2 a bale which marked yesterday's trading. The close was at a net gain of 36 to 40 points.

The opening was higher, partly in sympathy with a better Liverpool than due, but chiefly because of determined buying by leaders on the long side. This buying, according to the gossip of the exchange, really started late yesterday when a prominent trader commenced to give brokerage houses orders. Outsiders were quick to catch the change in the trend of the market, about the most sudden and startling of the season, and their orders materially swelled the volume of buying. Sellers of yesterday covered in a large way.

The dominant idea on the long side of the market appeared to be that the reaction of yesterday went too far and that shorts had oversold themselves. The market closed on a steady tone.

PROFESSIONAL VIEWS ON COTTON SITUATION

New York, October 29.—(Special.)—Heavy buying occurred in this market today, in consequence of which, prices made a substantial advance. Liquidation recently has been so extensive that leading interests here have decided to support the market and their buying has been the cause of the improvement. Fresh news is entirely absent, but considering all circumstances it would seem the part of wisdom for the south to sell at least a portion of its cotton on advancing markets.

JAY, BOND & CO.

New York, October 29.—(Special.)—When the civil war ended the south was so impoverished that many of her best men had lost financial courage and felt their situation a hopeless one. Among these was Brigadier General Quarles, who returned to his home in Tennessee and tried to make a private sale of all his property. He found buyers very scarce and finally concluded to advertise his property for sale at public auction. When he had finished writing his advertisement of the sale of his own property he read it over several times and began to realize the present and prospective value of his porperty. He tore the advertisement into sherds and said: "I'll keep it myself, it is too good to sell."

The ease with which a 17,000,000 bale cotton crop was marketed last season is so convincing that those who are advertising this small crop for sale at public auction may find their advertisement of that sale torn up by the farmer who raised the cotton and who is able, and should be willing to market only one-fifth of his crop each month until the mecca of his price ambitions has been reached.

The decline from 13¼c to 11.85c was due to a large talk about small sales of spot cottons. Accompanying this widely-distributed talk of urgent selling by farmers has been an equal amount of talk that Europe would not export as much of our cotton as she did last year. The answer to which is that you cannot put eight ears of corn in the trough where the mule feeds unless you have those eight ears of corn in the bin. Europe will take all we will let her have and be glad to get it. She may not begin heavy buying until her present stock is used up, but when she does start buying it will not be a question of price, but a quantity.

Our market needed no support at any time today. Had that support been needed it would have been given. If the owner of the spots does not exhibit undue haste very much higher prices are likely.

Liverpool is due six points higher or January-February 6.99.

RENSKORF, LYON & CO.

New York, October 29.—(Special.)—At the opening the market showed a buying demand which came as a surprise to the local trade and the spot houses, but as Liverpool became weak under the political advices they became heavier sellers on the prevailing idea that in the absence of a normal export demand the accumulation of cotton in the south will have to be marked at lower prices.

Of course in war times everyone must expect a slower distribution of the crop than in normal times, but the south knows just as well as the exporters, and with present financial abilities and the experience of last winter they may not press their crop for sale as rapidly as exporters think they will, for what good will it do them?

A question of a different price will not stimulate exports under present conditions, but a slow process of marketing is apt to distribute the crop on a better range of values as the south found out last year. After the close, January was in demand at 12 cents and spot houses bought during the afternoon.

WEEKLY REVIEW WOOLEN MARKET

Boston, October 29.—This has been considerably above an average week's business here in wool. Prices are not particularly higher, but they are firmer and slight advances have been made in a few instances. On the other hand there are a few in the trade who still lack confidence in the market.

Advices from the good centers are that business is better. Spinners of knitting yarns are receiving a good business and weaving yarn spinners also are getting a better trade.

Coffee.

New York, October 29.—The market for coffee futures was less active today and prices eased off under realizing. After opening steady at a decline of 1 to 7 points, active months steadied up a point or two during the middle of the day on rumors that exporters were buying from the local stock, continued firmness in Brazil and further buying by foreign or Wall street houses. Later, however, the market eased off with March selling down from 6.83 to 6.72 and May from 6.92 to 6.82 under profit-taking and the close was 8 to 11 points net lower. Sales, 38,750.

Spot firm; Rio sevens, 7½; Santos fours, 9⅜. It was reported that there was a large business in the cost and freight market again late yesterday and today's offers were firm with quotations ranging from 9.20 to 9.25 for Santos fours and at 7.60 for Rio sevens basis on English credits.

The oft-cable reported an advance of 1-32d in the rate of Rio exchange on London with Santos unchanged and Rio 75 reis higher. Santos cleared 61,000 bags from New York. Brazilian port receipts, 86,000; Jundiahy, 47,000.

JAPAN AGREES TO MAKE NO SEPARATE PEACE

London, October 29.—Japan has become a party to the agreement not to conclude a separate peace.

Announcement was made today that a note was addressed to the Japanese government on October 19 inviting it to give adherence to the declaration of Great Britain, France and Russia, signed on September 5 of last year, that none of these nations would conclude a separate peace. On the same day that this request was made Count Inouye, Japanese ambassador to Great Britain, replied that he had been authorized by his government to give "their full and complete adherence to the terms of this declaration."

Italy also is a party to this agreement, having given adhesion to it at the time she entered the war last May.

WARRENS ARE HELD FOR WOMAN'S DEATH

Prof. Bunce, of the Atlanta Medical College, Testifies That He Found No Poison in Woman's Stomach.

Abbeville, Ga., October 29.—(Special.) After an exciting trial today Clark Warren, his brother, J. B. Warren, and Charles Clements, a nephew, charged with the alleged murder of Mrs. Clark Warren on October 5, in Wilcox county, were remanded to jail to await the convening of the grand jury. The defendants claim that Mrs. Warren came to her death by suicide.

The trial justices were L. J. Whitehurst and John Ewing, of Abbeville; James King, of Pitts, and W. W. Wilson, of Seville.

The submitting of evidence in the case consumed practically the entire day until the hearing was recessed for supper at about 6 o'clock, with Colonels Hal Lawson and M. B. Cannon, of Abbeville, representing the defendants, and Judge Max E. Land and M. M. Eakes, of Cordele, representing the state. There is a tense and expectant interest in the trial and its outcome prevailing throughout this section and the courtroom was crowded throughout the day.

At 8 o'clock the hearing was resumed with all evidence in and the argument of counsel began. Allen H. Bunce, a professor at the Atlanta Medical college, who makes a specialty of chemical analysis work, testified that he had examined the stomach of Mrs. Warren and that he found no traces of poison whatever, contradictory to the main point of the defense that Mrs. Warren took poison and committed suicide. Drs. T. J. McArthur and A. J. Wheichel, of Cordele, testified that they held an autopsy over the body of Mrs. Warren and that they found her neck broken. Mrs. A. W. Fortson and Mrs. L. C. Gibbs, neighbors of the dead woman, who prepared the body for burial, testified that the neck was dislocated. This statement was also made by L. C. Gibbs.

The three defendants made virtually the same statement they had made previously—to the effect that they saw Mrs. Warren swallow the contents of a bottle and that they thought it was strychnine. A man by the name of Singletary and his wife testified on behalf of the defense that they saw Mrs. Warren fall in the yard. Liza Johnson, a negro woman on the Warren place, made the statement that she saw Mrs. Warren fall in the yard, though in several details her statement was in conflict with other evidence for the defense. Clark Warren offered no explanation for his alleged actions in leaving the scene of the tragedy, failing to attend his wife's funeral and not returning to the community for several days.

The preliminary trial is for the purpose of determining the question of whether the three defendants will be held over to the grand jury or given their freedom from the Wilcox county jail, where they have been held for the past week. The question of bail is not considered.

KING GEORGE IS HURT BY FALL FROM HORSE

London, October 29.—An accident to King George happened yesterday morning, the king being thrown from his horse and severely bruised.

The following official announcement was made:

"While the king this morning (Thursday) was inspecting his army in the field, his horse, excited by the cheers of the troops, reared up and fell. The king was bruised severely and will be confined to bed for the present."

A later bulletin, under today's date, says:

"The king has had a fair night, with some sleep. The temperature is now 99.2 and pulse, 75. His majesty's general condition has improved and no complications have arisen.

It is understood that the accident was not serious, although no details have been made.

The Prince of Wales arrived at Buckingham palace this afternoon on leave from France. The prince was in close attendance on his father during the king's inspection of his troops at the front. It is believed the prince has returned for the purpose of reassuring Queen Mary as to the king's condition. His presence here is taken as confirmation of the statement that the accident was not serious.

A Reuter dispatch from British headquarters describing the accident to the king says he had just completed an inspection of one corps and was on his way to inspect another when cheers from the troops, who threw their caps in the air, caused his horse to rear. The king managed to regain control of the horse, which, however, reared again and fell over backward, throwing the king to the ground. He was immediately assisted to a motor and while going away was able to return the salutes of the troops.

That the king was not more seriously injured doubtless was due to the fact that he is at home in the saddle and is considered more than an ordinary rider. When at Windsor he rides in the great park every day and even when he is in London is seen often in the early morning riding in Hyde park with Princess Mary.

The king's horses are well trained and they are accustomed to music, firing and the cheering of troops. The horse he rode yesterday, it is said, has been put through a special course of training for the reviews, and already had gone through one ordeal yesterday morning. The great outburst of cheering and the appearance of thousands of waving caps, however, were too much for the animal.

A heavy rain was falling and the slippery condition of the road made it more difficult for the horse, which apparently lost its footing when it reared the second time.

GEN. JOFFRE CONFERS WITH BRITISH LEADERS

London, October 29.—General Joffre, the French commander-in-chief, came to London today. He went to the war office on his arrival. Shortly afterwards he and Earl Kitchener, the war secretary, left together in an automobile.

General Joffre later attended a conference in Downing street, at which were present Premier Asquith, Earl Kitchener, A. J. Balfour, first lord of the admiralty; David Lloyd-George, minister of munitions, and several British and French military officers.

Earl Kitchener gave a dinner at York house, St. James palace, tonight in honor of General Joffre. A distinguished company was present to meet the French commander-in-chief.

COLLECTOR PAYS $285 FOR LINCOLN'S RIFLE

New York, October 29.—A rifle purchased by Abraham Lincoln and Henry Brooner for $15 when they lived in Spencer county, Indiana, and which was used by the famous war president in deer hunting, brought $285 in a sale of Lincoln relics here. It was a part of the collection of John E. Burton, of Milwaukee. One of Lincoln's law books was sold for $95.

CONSIDINE HAS NOTHING AND HE OWES $800,000

Seattle, Wash., October 29.—John Considine, member of the theatrical firm of Sullivan & Considine, a few years ago reputed to be a millionaire, testified here today that he was entirely without means and that he owed $800,000.

Considine was being examined in supplemental proceedings as to his ability to satisfy a judgment for $2,500 obtained against him on September 10 on an unpaid note signed by Considine. He said he had parted with everything that would bring money and was unable to raise sufficient funds. He was discharged.

MORGAN UNDER KNIFE FOR APPENDICITIS

Operation Reported Successful and Financier Is Resting Comfortably.

New York, October 29.—J. P. Morgan, who has been at his desk a little more than two months since recovering from bullet wounds inflicted by Erich Muenter, the mad professor of languages, who attempted to kill the financier last July, is again confined to his bed and under the care of specialists, this time from an attack of appendicitis.

Mr. Morgan went through an operation today, which three specialists afterward described as successful. An official bulletin late today said Mr. Morgan was resting comfortably.

The patient's attack of appendicitis was mild in character, it was said, and his condition in no way was attributed to the attempted assassination. Apparently the financier has recovered fully from the effects of the two bullet wounds he sustained then. His general health, his doctors said, was so excellent that his prompt recovery from the operation of today was confidently expected.

Tuesday afternoon Mr. Morgan attended a meeting of the directors of the United States Steel corporation. He was then in unusually good spirits. The next day, Wednesday, he was at his desk as usual. Yesterday, however, he was indisposed, and specialists diagnosed his ailment as a mild attack of appendicitis. The operation was performed at noon today at the Morgan home in Glen Cove, Long Island.

A rumor that Mr. Morgan was to undergo an operation spread through the financial section shortly after the opening of the stock exchange at 10 o'clock. Upon the stock exchange the effect was almost imperceptible. Stocks went down fractionally, but quickly rebounded. At the Morgan offices his illness was not regarded as serious by any member of the firm.

During the month and more that the Anglo-French loan commission spent in negotiations in this city Mr. Morgan's working hours were long.

Even on Sundays he did not neglect the members of the commission, but entertained Lord Reading and his associates frequently at his Glen Cove home. When the negotiations ended in success, Mr. Morgan announced that he intended to take a vacation of two weeks. This he did, returning only a few days ago to his office.

Whether Mr. Morgan's present indisposition could be attributed in part to his recent strenuous activity could not be ascertained today, but the general impression in the financial section was that such might be the case. Mr. Morgan is 48 years old.

A bulletin issued at 8 o'clock tonight said that Mr. Morgan's condition was "fully as normal as could be expected."

GREAT "WET" PARADE HELD AT CINCINNATI

COMMERCIAL EXCHANGE PROPOSED FOR ATLANTA

Time for Its Establishment in City Now Ripe, Say Leading Citizens.

At a meeting of cotton seed oil men, brokers and allied interests held in the Healey building yesterday tentative plans were laid for a commercial exchange in Atlanta, such as those in Memphis, New Orleans and other southern cities.

The plan is to establish an exchange which will include all market lines, such as cotton, cotton seed, all lines of grain, produce and other items. This has been considered for a long while as something which is badly needed in Atlanta. The sentiment was expressed at the meeting that the time for the establishment of such an exchange is now ripe in Atlanta.

There were about fifty men present at the meeting.

E. P. McBurney, of the Empire Cotton Oil mills, was made chairman pro tem., and F. E. Taylor, of the Taylor Commission company, was made temporary chairman.

Committees were appointed to report upon various phases of the organization at a meeting to be held in about ten days.

Alleged That He Ordered Whisky in Postscript Added to Stolen Letter

Waycross, Ga., October 29.—(Special.)—Donnie Highsmith, of Nahunta, was today bound over to the United States court at Savannah on a charge of taking a letter from a mail chute on an Atlantic Coast Line train last November. He was given a hearing by United States Commissioner Herbert Wilson. Bond of $200 was given. It was alleged that Highsmith, in the act of mailing a letter, found a letter from W. J. White, of McDonald, stuck in the chute. The government alleges Highsmith opened the letter and added a postscript directing that whisky ordered be sent to Henry McFadden at Nahunta. A few days later whisky was delivered, it was charged, to the Nahunta man.
